We Come As Pilgrim Of Peace, Joy, Love, He Says

Pope Paul Welcomed By 100,000 As Pontiff Launches India Visit

BOMBAY, India (AP) — Pope Paul VI arrived today on the longest mission ever undertaken by a pontiff, was welcomed by 100,000 Indians, and said "We come as a pilgrim, a pilgrim of peace, of joy and love."

There was no single incident, although police had been prepared for hostile acts from fanatical Hindu sects opposed to the papal visit to attend the 38th International Eucharistic Congress.

Wearing a white skull cap, a red silk stole and a red brocade cape at the end of the 4,000-mile journey, Pope Paul walked down a 40-foot red carpet spread from the ramp of the plane.

Waiting to greet him were Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri, a Hindu who was said at first to have opposed the Pope's visit to Hindu India; and Vice President Zakir Hussain, a Moslem.

"We rejoice in the honor of meeting you," the Pope said in his address to Shastri and Hussain.

After praising India for its efforts for world peace, the Pope added:

"We come as a pilgrim, a pilgrim of peace, of joy and love. We greet all the Indian people, every man, woman and child. And we extend our greeting to all the nations of Asia, to every nations in the world."

While there were nearly 100,000 Indians at the airport, many barefoot and wearing the dhoti or robe of their impoverished land, only about 8,000 were permitted to enter the airport. Many of these were Indian Catholics.

POPE PAUL VI, under cover of an umbrella to guard against the pre-dawn rain, waves to well-wishers as he mounts steps leading to Air India jetliner that took him to India today. The Pope made the 3,849-mile trip to attend the Eucharistic Congress. Air hostess Cynthia Kyte is shown waiting at top of steps to greet the pontiff. (UPI Telephoto)

Minutes before the plane landed, about 2,000 Indians broke through police lines and surged across the runway seeking a better view of the leader of the world's half billion Roman Catholics.

About 2,000 police, on duty at the airport, shoved the crowd back without using violence. The police used long bamboo poles.

There was a cheer from the crowd as the jetliner landed in the 87-degree heat.

After the ceremonies at the airport the Pope walked to a waiting car in the motorcade assembled to drive him 13 miles into the center of Bombay.

More than 16,000 policemen were stationed between the airport and Oval Park, the Pope's destination in downtown Bombay where the congress is being held.

Waiting in Oval Park for the Pope were an estimated 200,000 Catholics attending the congress. They had been jammed in the 80-acre park for hours under the hot sun.

In a statement distributed as he left Rome on the longest papal journey in history, the Roman Catholic pontiff asked those who sympathized with his mission to pray for its success. With poverty-stricken Asia as his destination, he appealed to the rich countries of the world to lend economic support to relieve the poverty of underdeveloped nations.

Investigators Call Baker To Testify In Alleged Payoff

U.N. Chief Averts U.S., Soviet Clash

Assembly Opening Seen Victory For General Secretary

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The launching of the twice-delayed U.N. General Assembly without a head-on clash between the United States and the Soviet Union was seen today as a victory for Secretary-General U Thant.

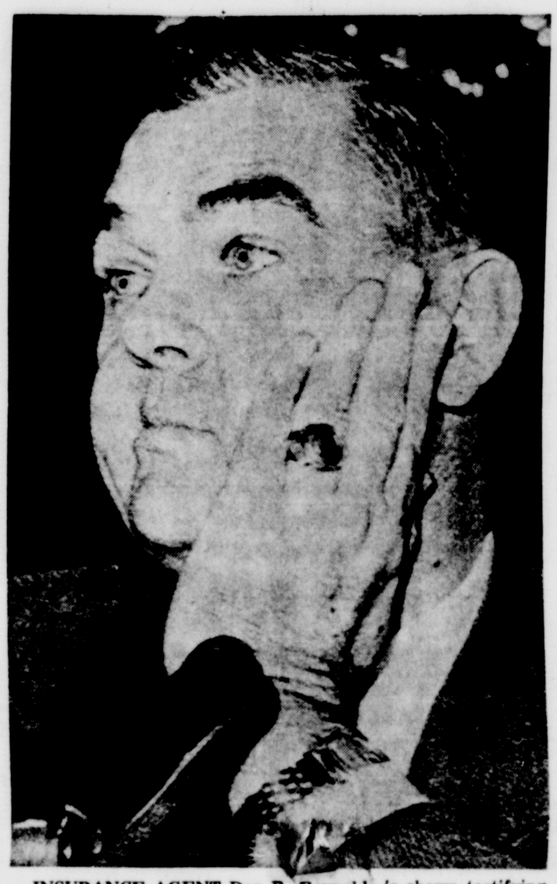

Delegates said Thant's patience and persistence brought the big powers together Tuesday for one more try at getting the assembly under way without a blowup over the issue of the Soviet Union's unpaid peacekeeping dues and its assembly vote.

As diplomats sat in the General Assembly hall waiting for the 19th session to begin, representatives of the four big powers met in Thant's office and agreed to limit the opening weeks to general policy debate and noncontroversial issues.

During that time a 21-nation committee will try to reach some solution of the issue raised by Soviet refusal to pay any Congo or Middle East peacekeeping dues and the U.S. contention that it should lose its assembly vote as a financial delinquent.

Today's assembly agenda appeared noncontroversial enough with a parade of speakers slated to welcome Malawai, Malta and Zambia, which were admitted Tuesday to bring the U.N. membership to 115.

Thant began overtures several months ago in search of a formula that would get the Soviet Union off the financial hook without the United States challenging her right to vote. The Russians threatened to quit the United Nations if they lost their vote.

INSURANCE AGENT Don B. Reynolds is shown testifying before the Senate Rules Committee in Washington Tuesday as the Bobby Baker case was reopened. Reynolds said he turned over $15,000 in cash to Baker for use by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson in the 1960 campaign. (UPI Telephoto)

Cited As One Responsible For Orders

Insurance Agent Declares He Was 'Bag Man' In Case

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bobby Baker, former secretary of the Senate Democratic majority, refused today to turn over subpoenaed documents to senators investigating an alleged political payoff from a government contract.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators call Bobby Baker to the witness stand today to question him about an alleged $25,000 political payoff in which he has been cited as the man who gave the orders.

There was no advance indication as to whether Baker would testify. In an earlier Senate probe of his activities, he invoked the Fifth Amendment and refused to answer questions.

Don B. Reynolds, a local insurance man, opened the Senate Rules Committee's hearings Tuesday by swearing he was the "bag man" in the alleged kickback deal and Baker was the one who "gave me all my orders."

For some four hours Reynolds detailed the arrangements he said were made between Baker and Democratic politician Matthew H. McCloskey to funnel $25,000 from a government contract for construction of the District of Columbia Stadium into the 1960 Kennedy-Johnson campaign fund.

Water Meter 'Tampering' Ban Adopted

Wellsville Council Skips Final Action On TV Cable Plan

Legislation to prohibit tampering with water meters in homes and business places was amended and then adopted under suspension of rules by Wellsville City Council Tuesday night. The legislation is aimed at "bypassing" of meters.

No action was taken on final reading of legislation to grant a franchise to Rego Industries, Inc., of Hoboken, N. J., for installation and operation of a television cable service in the community.

The ordinance on tampering with meters was given first reading at the last meeting, but one section caused objections. The section would have made it unlawful for anyone to prohibit an authorized employe of the water department to inspect the plumbing in the household or read the meter.

Bypass Area Limited

The objection was that this covered all plumbing in the house. It was agreed no bypass of the meter could be made to gain free water unless it was done between the meter and curb box.

The section was amended to read that it will be unlawful to prohibit the reading of a meter or checking the meter or the water line from the curb box to the meter on any premise served by city water.

Anyone violating this section or another prohibiting tampering with parts or disconnecting the meter is subject to a fine of $10 to $50 under the legislation.

Council agreed to delay action on passage of the television franchise legislation until an offer from a Steubenville firm is given further study.

A caucus session was held prior to the regular meeting with Les C. Rau, general manager of the Neptune Broadcast-

To Meet With Ike, Nixon

Goldwater Plans 'Summit' Talks

BY JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater said today he plans to meet soon with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Richard M. Nixon for a "general discussion" of the Republican party's future course.

The defeated GOP presidential nominee said in an interview on his return to Washington from Phoenix, Ariz., that he doesn't know where the summit conference discussion will lead. But he indicated he is willing to cooperate with the former president and the former vice president in trying to bring peace among the bickering factions of the Republican party.

Goldwater said the meeting originally had been scheduled for next Thursday at Eisenhower's office at Gettysburg, Pa., but had to be delayed because fo Nixon's trip to Japan. He added, however, he hopes it can be fitted into the schedules of all three principals before his return to Arizona next week.

Goldwater made it clear he would encourage the formation of the kind of advisory council suggested by some GOP governors and other party leaders to bring all factions into the formation of future party policy.

"I tried to get Milton Eisenower's group to continue its work," he said. "I thought they were making some headway."

Eisenhower, brother of the former president and head of Johns Hopkins University, is chairman of the Republican Critical Issues Council. The council, a panel of leading Republicans, issued GOP policy statements through special task forces during the recent presidential campaign.

Goldwater remained adamant in his opposition to the replacement of Republican National Chairman Dean Burch, his personal choice for the job after the San Francisco nominating convention.

"They are not going to throw Burch out," he said. "They don't have the votes."

This opposition by the presidential nominee to any replacement of the national chairman at this time was concurred in by congressional Republican leaders who think it is too early to take such drastic action.

Goldwater said he regards himself now as "a free man," able to speak out on issues of paramount interest to the nation. He indicated he no longer feels any of the restraints he implied had been placed on him as a presidential candidate in dealing with international issues.

Gets Orders From Johnson

Taylor Will Chart Plans To Intensify War In Viet

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor, armed with fresh orders from President Johnson, will fly back to South Viet Nam shortly to work out new plans for intensifying the war against Communist guerrillas.

Presumably, prospective new military actions could include air strikes against the Communist supply lines that run from North to South Viet Nam through the mountainous jungles of Laos.

A White House statement reporting on the conference Johnson held Tuesday with Taylor and other top policy advisers withheld details on prospective actions.

Significantly, however, the statement emphasized Red use of the supply lines through Laos and said there is evidence of increasing support to the Viet Cong rebels from Communist North Viet Nam. The statement also said that Taylor would "consult urgently" with the South Viet Nam government on what should be done to improve the war effort.

Against the background of mounting expectation of decisions on whether the war should be broadened beyond the boundaries of South Viet Nam, the White House statement summarized military, political and economic conditions in the country and said:

Secret Talks Launched By Steel Union

Pittsburgh Parley To Plot Course For Pact Negotiations

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The AFL - CIO United Steelworkers launches today a series of secret meetings to plot the course of contract negotiations with the basic steel industry.

The 33-man executive board was to convene to draft recommendations for presentation to the union's final authority on contract matters, the 170-member international wage policy committee.

That committee meets later today and again Thursday.

Negotiations on a national contract are expected to begin after the first of the year. If an agreement is not reached the union may strike after giving 120 days notice. The earliest strike date would be May 1.

Complicating the picture is a race for the presidency of the million-member USW.

David J. McDonald, president since 1952, is opposed for another four-year term by I. W. Abel, the secretary-treasurer. Abel is considered the toughest opposition McDonald has had to face.

The election is Feb. 9. Ballots must be counted by May 1.

Both men have said union politics will not enter into the negotiations but industry sources think otherwise.

The current "open-end" contract provides for national bargaining to start after Jan. 1 but local talks may begin sooner if both sides agree. Many plant level discussions are scheduled to start this month.

The last time the USW struck was for a 116-day period in 1959.

Kluz' Opponent Quits District 20 Contest

Michael Katchur of Aliquippa withdrew today from the race for representative of District 20 of the Steelworkers Union, leaving the nomination uncontested for Kay Kluz, incumbent.

Michael Zahorsky of Aliquippa, also seeking the post withdrew last week, throwing his support to Katchur.

Katchur's decision to withdraw followed the action of three locals Tuesday night to back Kluz.

Kluz now has more than the required eight local nominations to have his name placed on the ballot, while Katchur had the backing of only one local. Crucible Local 1212 at Midland earlier supported Kluz.

Freezing Rain May Be Mixed With Snow

Temperatures eased considerably during the night but the Ohio weatherman insists the moderation in the cold snap will bring intermittent light snow tonight.

It may be mixed with light freezing rain.

There were a few flurries Tuesday night but little accumulation, although light snow had been forecast. The snow is expected to end by Thursday with little temperature change.

The downtown had a 24 at 7 a. m. today contrasted to the 13 of yesterday morning, and it never went above freezing. Today's high will range between 28 and 35 and tonight's low will be in the upper 20's.

New Midland Bridge Now Open To Traffic

The new Midland - Shippingport Bridge is now open to traffic, according to A. A. Benintend, vice president of the Ben Construction Co. of Pittsburgh, contractor.

Benintend said the bridge, which was opened Tuesday night, will remain in use until spring when final concreting work is scheduled on the Shippingport side.

Ribbon cutting ceremonies for the new structure were conducted Monday morning.

Hancock 'Economies'

14 Deputies Due $100 Salary Cuts

Four measures aimed at "economizing" Hancock County funds for the final month of the present administration were approved Tuesday by County Commissioners, one calling for salary cuts of $100 a month for 14 deputies on the staff of Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny.

The measures, three introduced by Commissioner Jack Evans of New Cumberland and one by James Finley of Weirton, call for:

SALARY CUTS of $100 a month for sheriff's deputies, in all probability ending their extra duties on traffic control during opening and closing hours of Waterford Park Race Track.

Dismissal of two "extra" employes in the office of Assessor Arnold Anderson.

Discontinued use of a county station wagon used the past year by Commissioner William C. Graham of Chester.

Directives to be issued requiring operators of all county vehicles to sign receipts on purchases of gasoline and other supplies for their vehicles.

Evans introduced the measures involving the salary cuts of sheriff's deputies and dismissal of two women on the assessor's staff, declaring budgets for salaries in each of the offices are "overdrawn" for the first half of the 1964-65 fiscal year.

EVANS estimated the sheriff's fund will be overdrawn $8,054 by Jan. 1 when a new sheriff will be installed.

He estimated the overdrawal at the assessor's office by Jan. 1 will be an estimated $2,718.75.

The sheriff's office had been allotted $52,150 for the first six months of this year, and the assessor's office $20,090.

Evans declared the primary reason for the "overdrawal" at the sheriff's office is because

Bill Includes County Officials

Ohio House Votes Boost In Pay For Legislators

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State lawmakers have taken the first step toward making Ohio's Legislature the second highest paid in the nation.

If a bill passed Tuesday night by the House goes through the Senate unchanged and is signed by the govenor, lawmakers' salaries would jump from $5,000 to $8,000 a year starting with the 1965 session.

A study by the Legislative Service Commission — fact-finding arm of the Legislature — a few weeks ago indicated New York heads the list, paying its legislators $10,000 annually. If Ohio's legislative pay jumps to $8,000, it will top Massachusetts' $7,800, listed as No. 2 nationally by the commission.

Other states presently ahead of Ohio are Michigan ($7,000); California, Illinois and Pennsylvania ($6,000) and Wisconsin ($5,400).

New York, Massachusetts, Michigan, California and Pennsylvania are among 18 states which have annual legislative sessions. A resolution introduced last week, and probably up for a house vote today, would add Ohio to the list.

The $3,000 increase would boost salaries of House speaker

Car Hits Pole, Injuring Man

Parked Auto Drifts, Dives Over Hillside

Donald P. Smith, 34, of 317 Burrows Ave. escaped with a possible fracture of the nose when his auto went out of control at 3:25 a. m. today and struck a utility pole on Burrows Ave. 100 feet west of St. Clair Ave., police reported.

Smith told Patrolman J. A. Walsh he applied his brakes as the car slid when he turned off St. Clair onto Burrows. But the sole of his shoe was wet and his foot slipped off the brake pedal and hit the accelerator, he said.

The front of Smith's 1963 two-door sedan was damaged extensively, officers said. The driver was released after treatment at City Hospital.

In another mishap Tuesday night at 6:15, a parked 1959 model convertible drifted off the lot at a Dresden Ave. garage, crossed the street and dived over a hillside, striking a tree, police reported.

Jay Brown of McKee St. was driving the auto, owned by Woodrow Lovett Jr., 2117 LaCroft St., officers said. Brown told Patrolman L. E. Richard he parked the car at Howard's Garage on Dresden Ave., set the emergency brake and entered the shop.

The emergency brake did not hold, allowing the car to drift, police said.

Mrs. Helen E. Williams, 1049 Monaca St., told police the right front of her 1955 coupe was damaged when struck by a hit-skip car while parked on Monaca St. near Turner Alley sometime between 5 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Somewhere, Somehow, Sometime

It should be no surprise to anyone, least of all to members of the American Medical Association now convening in Washington, that the medical profession, like the Supreme Court of the United States, follows election returns.

Their professional association's hammer - and - tongs fight against "medicare" in the national election was a flop. The Johnson administration's solicitude for the problems of aging Americans who incur unusual costs of illness was a powerful element in the Democratic landslide.

Many medical doctors wish their profession hadn't become involved in partisan politics. But of the doctors who are politically knowledgeable, a sizeable majority went through a process of disillusionment when the votes were cast Nov. 3.

It is not that they took a licking at the polls — not at all. The American people are in no mood to think of the medical profession in that way. They don't want doctors to take any lickings.

But doctors who opposed "medicare" did not carry the day for their cause.

Perhaps they may realize something in Washington that seems to have been concealed from many of them in their home localities — that people talking about a plan for meeting emergency medical costs are not trying to undermine the traditional doctor-patient relationship.

Nothing has been said about intervening or interfering in this relationship. "Medicare," as proposed, would make it possible to pay only for hospital costs; it is not a doctor payment plan at all.

When doctors speak of it as a scheme to introduce socialized medicine, their patients do not understand the misgivings they express. No one in this country wants to socialize medicine. But a great many people in this country do want to do something to avert the grisly fear of being wiped out financially by the afflictions of old age.

It's controversial. But it isn't conspiratorial to want to do something about this. Somewhere, somehow, sometime the medical profession should be able to see that paying for the cost of today's better medical care is a public problem, not a plot to socialize medicine.

The Sargus Plan

With the redistricting battle now shifted to the Ohio Senate, Sen. Edmund A. Sargus of St. Clairsville of the 20th-22nd Senatorial District has offered a plan to revise the 18th Congressional District which reportedly has met with favor from some of his colleagues, including three Republicans.

Mr. Sargus' proposal differs only slightly from that approved by the House. It would make but one change in the present district setup—moving Tuscarawas County from the 16th District and adding it to Columbiana, Carroll, Jefferson, Harrison and Belmont counties, which now comprise the 18th.

The action passed by the House would transfer Carroll to the 16th and add Tuscarawas and Monroe to the 18th.

Either lineup of counties appears reasonably acceptable, in contrast to the "split" proposal of Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel of Lisbon, which is anything but acceptable.

Mr. Wetzel's suggested solution would be to throw part of Columbiana County in with Stark County and part in with the present down-river counties of the 18th District. This idea is as absurd now as it was the day Mr. Wetzel tossed it into the redistricting frying pan.

Is It Time To Break With Moscow?

By DAVID LAWRENCE

David Lawrence

The suggestion is being advanced in Washington, that perhaps this is the time to consider a severance of diplomatic relations between the United States and the Soviet Union.

The American Embassy in Moscow has been stoned, and a mob has threatened the safety of embassy personnel there. The American seal was torn from the building. It's reported by observers that the Soviet police knew this demonstration was government - inspired and at first they appeared to tolerate the disorder. The Afro-Asian students, who are in Moscow as guests of the government there, would hardly have ventured to engage in such a deliberate attack if it hadn't been encouraged, or at least acquiesced in, by the Soviet authorities.

Apart, however, from the violation of dipolmatic immunity at the American embassy, the whole structure of diplomatic relations with this country has been torn apart by the amazing note sent by the new Soviet premier accusing the United States of "military intervention" in the Congo.

Yet the sole object of the few days' mission by the Belgian paratroopers, who used American transport planes, was to rescue hundreds of human beings — citizens of the United States as well as those of other countries — who were being threatened with death by Communist-backed rebels.

NOT ONLY was the humanitarian purpose of the United States scorned, but no notice was taken by Moscow of the fact that many foreign citizens, including Spanish nuns and other missionaries, were brutally slain, tortured or wounded.

It's being asked now of what avail are the continued efforts of the United States in prolonged talks with the Soviet Union to achieve agreements on a variety of subjects when there is such a flagrant disregard by the Moscow government of the basic principles of humane conduct. How could the word of any such government be trusted hereafter in view of this treacherous record?

Even worse has been the clandestine support given by the Communist regimes in Moscow and Peiping to military operations throughout Southeast Asia.

These two governments now have pledged "the necessary military assistance" to North Viet Nam, which means an intensified war in Southeast Asia. The United States government, in accordance with international law, has been furnishing aid at the request of the established government in South Viet Nam, whose people are the victims of guerrilla warfare conducted by the Communists.

THERE IS evidence that the Red Chinese today are active on all continents, and that a military understanding exists with the Russian Communists.

Two significant utterances on these points have just been made. Australia, for instance, is naturally vigilant in watching the situation in Southeast Asia. Paul Hasluck, minister of external affairs of that country, has been conferring in Washington in the last few days with Secretary of State Rusk, secretary of Defense McNamara and other U.S. officials. He said to the press here:

"The aggressive intent of the Communist Chinese government is a threat to the world. The rising power of China, its aggression and subversion against its neighbors, and its political activities in other continents make it the major danger to peace today."

Mr. Hasluck blamed the Red Chinese for the situation not only in South Viet Nam but also in Laos, and declared that the struggle is not just a regional or an Asian question but "is part of the world conflict." He added that it's the most significant factor in the longer term problem of world peace.

ANOTHER COMMENT is by Adolf A. Berle, former U.S. ambassador to Brazil, who said in a public speech last week that concealed attempts by Communist forces to take over Latin-American nations "is one of the real triumphs of Russian propaganda."

He declared that the Communist movement in Latin America "assists sincere revolutionists, but promptly follows them with arms and troops provided by one or another of the Communist powers."

These acts of aggression are known to the American government through its own intelligence sources. There is no longer any any doubt that the Moscow government and the Peiping government are working hand in hand against the United States in all parts of the world.

Under such circumstances, the continuance of diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union is coming to be regarded as a sign of weakness which can only give the impression that the United States will not take any decisive action to thwart the Soviet-Chinese acts of aggression.

It often has been argued that the severance of diplomatic relations is a meaningless gesture. But it does have a moral effect throughout the world.

It could have a very definite impact on the American businessmen as well as on those of other countries who have been talking of furnishing long-term credits to the Soviets and of expanding trade.

The people of the United States are not in favor of extending any grants of aid or any loans to governments which are undermining the position of this country throughout the world.

'I Want Something Really Memorable. I'm An Outgoing Congressman And May Never Return'

Chinese In The Congo

There is no easy escape from danger in the Congo; there never was. Further rescue missions like the one staged by Belgian paratroopers from U. S. aircraft now are impossible. The whites still behind rebel lines, which are changing all the time and aren't likely to be stablized in the near future, are doomed to remain in danger. They are too widely scattered to be rescued en masse.

Their best chance for safety is the professional competence of the professional white fighters helping the Tshombe government assert its military authority. Much as these hired soldiers are resented, they give assurance of marginal security against the rebels challenging the regime in Leopoldville.

It is a certainty now that the Republic of Congo will not be politically or militarily stabilized for a long, long time.

It is interesting to recall that observers on the scene four years ago when the tottering country was taking its first steps predicted this.

They pointed to the absence of skills among the Congolese and to the hopelessly heavy handicap of tribal frictions. Tribal leaders, they explained, would assert more authority over their followers than the leaders of any central government could hope to assert. The situation would be ready-made for outside agitators hoping to stir up trouble at the expense of the Leopoldville government.

This is what has happened. The hatred without restraint that has flared among Congolese rebels has shown whites what it is like to be a hated minority. It would be nice to believe something might be done about it, but nothing can be done about it, short of generations of education accompanied by a complete change of heart by all the colored races that want to expel whites from Africa.

Chief among these, it appears, are the Chinese, whose presence and influence in the Congo may be the most significant thing that is happening there. Four years ago, Russian Communists tried to establish influence in the Congo, without success. The Chinese appear to be doing somewhat better.

Watch Your Step!

Injuries from a fall on the ice have sent a Wellsville woman to the hospital.

Unfortunately, there are certain to be other similar reports as cold weather continues in the months ahead.

Tumbles on the ice can be reduced considerably, however, if preventive measures are taken. Such as—

Extra care by those who find it necessary to walk during slippery conditions;

Ashing or sanding of dangerous spots;

Prompt cleaning of sidewalks as soon as the snow falls, thus eliminating the "packing" which often makes the walks doubly treacherous;

Repair of faulty drains which allow water to flow along walks and turn into layers of ice when freezing weather strikes.

The problem in East Liverpool and the area is the more complicated because of the hilly terrain.

Broken bones are no fun. So watch your step!

Thanks To Science

The greatest break-through in 20th century civilization is not nuclear fission but clothing.

When winter closes in is the time to appreciate what has been done for shivering mankind. After aeons of misery, homo sapiens can be almost as comfortable as the animals he shares the earth with.

The poor sap will never make it all the way because of false pride and the unhappy fact he is born with built-in disadvantages. But there has been more progress in the 20th century than in the last 20 centuries.

This has been a triumph for science. For the first time in human history, a scientific approach was made to the age-old problem of keeping warm.

Instead of piling on more clothing willy-nilly, the science fellows found out what caused some clothing to be warmer than other clothing and went on from there.

They did research to learn what had worked best in the past and why. They learned that the Chinese always had kept warm by wearing layers of padded cotton garments. This became the principal of thermal clothing that keeps the wearer warm by surrounding his body with multiple layers of fabric.

It became the principle of thermal shoes, discovered centuries ago by Russian peasants, who wore felt boots inside leather boots. As recently as World War II, Russians were still keeping their feet warm that way while Nazi invaders were losing toes to frostbite and U. S. soldiers were pleading for galoshes.

Most vital information disclosed in the clothing break-through was the importance of body heat. It was not clothing that was "warm." It was the air interlocked in the composition of clothing fabric that did the job. It kept body heat from escaping.

The whole thing was as simple as a storm window that creates a layer of dead air between the outer and inner panes of glass — but how many storm windows were seen before the 20th century?

And how many human beings who piled on multiple layers of clothing knew what caused two light shirts to be warmer than one heavy shirt, two pairs of pants to be warmer than one pair made of heavier cloth etc.?

Now, thanks to science, everybody knows.

It will be only a matter of time until the ultimate break-through into winter comfort will be made — a cover-all with an inner lining of flimsy fuzz on the order of what once was called fleece - lined underwear, except the fleece never stayed fleecy.

Each of us will have two of these, and that will be a winter wardrobe. Oh, you've thought of it, too. Also suitable for sleeping bags. Exactly. And for $10 extra you can get the whole thing wired to plug into a socket at night, like an electric blanket.

Thanks to science.

That's Not Child's Play In Puerto Rico

By VICTOR RIESEL

Victor Riesel

International cold wars can be fought with hot lead, fiery propaganda or jagged rocks flung by over-excited university students unaware of the actual identity of some of their "leaders."

All three techniques are being used against the United States on its own soil — Puerto Rico. And our government may find itself in the awkward position of countering the insurgency with federal troops. This would provide America's enemies with just the propaganda formula needed to stir riotous demonstrations against the United States on the arrests in big Asian, African and Latin American cities.

To prevent such grim exploitation of young Americans it therefore becomes important to focus consistently on the techniques being used by the Sino-Soviet-Cuban bloc to zero in on the island.

One group, the Movimiento Armado Purtorriqueno Autentico, (MAPA) actually stored up arms and ammunition and drew up a declaration of war against Washington. This was no comic opera script. Because of the Movimiento, men have died and gun battles have been fought.

THE MOVIMIENTO created itself in the image of an earlier Josef Stalin who held up banks to finance the revolution. Earlier this year, the MAPA committed a series of burglaries. With the stolen money it bought arms for the "revolution."

In March the FBI learned that MAPA agents were planning a burglary near San Juan. J. Edgar Hoover's bureau speedily informed Puerto Rican police. They "staked" out and caught one of the MAPA men right in the act.

After a month-long quiet probe the police raided a mountain cave near Moca. The authorities discovered arms, rounds of ammunition and military supplies — and the declaration of war against the United States.

The police were fired on as they closed in. They fought back. One MAPA man was killed in the cave. Soon some were imprisoned and others are out on bond awaiting trial for violating the island's arms laws.

This is not child's play, nor is the less bloody though turbulent students' independent movement. They used rocks not guns when they rioted late in October.

Police guarding The University of Puerto Rico were injured and cars were burned.

SOME STUDENTS were apparently sincere independents. But if they had looked closely at some others, the students would have noticed two "leaders" who are closely tied to the Communists' international apparatus. This, too, is not child's play.

One such leader is Marta Sanchez, who tells her fellow travelers and newsmen covering the disturbances that she is not a Communist but believes in keeping open channels of dialogue. Investigation discloses that her dialogue at home in Puerto Rico is milder than it was when she was toured, cheered, dined and wined in Communist China, North Viet Nam and North Korea not too long ago.

During her stay in Peking she traveled with another "student," Narciso Rabell, and passed herself off as the representative of a Puerto Rican University students' independence movement.

TYPICAL of her speeches of greeting to the thousands assembled to listen to the two was her talk on the night of March 20. That evening she called them "comrades," referred to American officials as murderers and imperialists and talked of the attempt to kill Harry Truman and members of the House of Representatives in glowing terms.

At one point she said of the Puerto Rican Nationalists they: "attempted to kill President Truman but were able only to wound a congressman. For this two nationalists died and others were imprisoned. . . ."

But she predicted that the Nationalist revolution would succeed some day. The "day is approaching," she shouted. "All this is the martial bugle preceding the national liberation of our country and of Latin America which will lead to the total eradication of the U.S. cancer in Latin America. . . ."

HER PARTNER, Rabell, also sounded off all over Communist China. Now back in Puerto Rico, he is the permanent delegate of a university students' independence group which whipped up some of the rioting) to the Communist International Congress of Students officially headquartered in Prague.

It appears that an impartial, heavily publicized open hearing by the Puerto Rican authorities is overdue.

Fog Never Lifted

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

The fog never lifted.

As the American-backed war against Communist guerrillas in South Viet Nam steadily deteriorated there was a dense fog over this country's plans, if any, for saving the chaotic situation.

Then the U.S. ambassador to Saigon, Maxwell D. Taylor, came home to talk to President Johnson. After they met Tuesday the White House issued a statement which indicated neither a solution nor a new idea.

This doesn't mean the two men didn't reach a decision on how to save Viet Nam and perhaps all Southeast Asia from communism. But they were very careful in the vaguely worded statement not to say so.

By their very vagueness they left themselves enormous room for a far tougher American policy — if that's what they have in mind — but this becomes understandable only if you can remember the background.

The White House statement said:

"The President reaffirmed the basic U.S. policy of providing all possible and useful assistance to the South Vietnamese people and government in their struggle to defeat the externally supported insurgency and aggression being conducted against them.

"It was noted that this policy accords with the terms of the joint congressional resolution of Aug. 10, 1964, which remains in full force and effect."

When North Vietnamese PT boats attacked two U.S. destroyers in the Gulf of Tonkin last August, Johnson promptly ordered American planes to retaliate by bombing North Vietnamese coastal bases, patrol boats and oil installations. That was Aug. 4.

This attack spread over five hours and 100 miles of coast. The next day Johnson asked Congress to give him advance approval for any steps he thought necessary in the Southeast Asia predicament. Congress obliged.

It approved a resolution authorizing Johnson to "take all necessary steps, including use of the armed forces," to assist South Viet Nam or any other country under the protection of the Southeast Asia collective defense treaty which asked for help in defense of its freedom.

Although Johnson said "the United States intends no rashness and seeks no wider war," this resolution was a green light. The fact that he referred to it Tuesday could mean he now intends far more drastic action than anything this country has attempted yet.

But, if so, it almost certainly means widening the war, which is what Johnson said in August he didn't intend to do. There was no hint of this in Tuesday's statement but then, of course, it might be poor strategy to telegraph a punch to the Communists ahead of time.

Yet, all through 1964 Johnson has given the impression of a man reluctant to do anything different from what has been done in the past and what has been done was limited even though the war crumbled day by day.

Johnson's hesitancy about broadening the war is understandable, although hesitancy may lose it. If, for instance, North Viet Nam were bombed, Red China might come to its aid, thus turning a small war into an American-Chinese war.

Meanwhile, it's not just the Red guerrillas who are frustrating the American efforts so far. The South Vietnamese themselves are doing it, slowly sinking their country into chaos with their own instability and riots against their government.

The White House statement — that "the President reaffirmed the basic U.S. policy of providing all possible and useful assistance to the South Vietnamese people" — is a repetition of what he said last Jan. 1.

Chaplain Program Aired

Ministerial Association To Back Clothing Drives

The East Liverpool Ministerial Association Tuesday decided to support two clothing drives for Church World Service during the year. It met at Carnegie Public Library.

Harold Barth, curator of the museum at the library, spoke on the history and settlement of East Liverpool.

A report was made on Thanksgiving offerings, which will go to the chaplaincy fund.

The Rev. John Clark, pastor of the First Methodist Church, was program chairman. The Rev. Charles Kampmeyer of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, president, presided and led devotions.

The next meeting will be Jan. 5, with the place to be announced.

A discussion on a change of operating policy concerning the hiring of an assistant chaplain, and defining his duties, featured a meeting of the Tri-State Hospital Chaplaincy Committee Monday at St. John's church.

The need of an assistant at the City and Osteopathic Hospitals was noted, in the event of a prolonged absence of the chaplain, the Rev. Joseph Varner.

The Rev. Allen Rose of the Salineville Methodist Church was advised to investigate the possibility of hiring the assistant.

A change in filing of patients' names as to church affiliation was approved, and a proposal to place a sign above the chaplain's office at City Hospital was discussed.

The Rev. Arden Beck, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Wellsville, chairman, presided. The next meeting will be held Jan. 25 at the First United Presbyterian Church of Chester.

For the first time this special session, the House followed an afternoon floor session Tuesday with one in the evening that produced votes on bills.

Besides the pay bill, representatives passed and sent to the Senate Tuesday night a bill authorizing cities to increase income taxes above one per cent if a 55 per cent approving margin is obtained in any election, not just the general election.

They also agreed to a Senate bill allowing transfer of surplus money obtained by a conservancy district by sale of land or forest-mineral rights from its general fund to use for recreational facilities. It is aimed specifically at helping the Muskingum Conservancy District.

In all, Tuesday was the most productive in terms of total bills passed in the House since the special session began Nov. 9.

Seven bills, all with emergency clauses making them effective as soon as they complete the legislative trip and are signed instead of 90 days later, were passed. Six, sent on to the Senate, would:

Authorize the state Division of Mines to try to prevent through regulation the pollution of water by wastes from oil and gas wells.

Allow the Mines Division to increase its deputy oil and gas well inspector staff from three to six (at an estimated initial annual cost of $22,000) because of increased drilling activity in Ohio.

Combine the state divisions of forestry and reclamation, both under the Natural Resources Department, into a single division with authority to enforce strip - mining regulations.

Modify the Conservancy District Act so property owners would be notified by mail of appraisals and assessments and have ample opportunity to complain and appeal.

Permit townships to join with cities and counties in creating port authorities, a measure intended at the moment to help Erie and Ashtabula counties.

Correct a 1963 law to specifically allow Ohio's department of development to receive federal planning grants in working with communities.

The seventh, already passed without dissent in the Senate, authorizes sale of 353½ acres of framland from the 1,050-acre Mansfield Reformatory at $1,099 an acre to Empire Reeves Steel Corp. for industrial expansion.

Most County Heads Due $2,100 Increase

COLUMBUS — All Columbiana County officials except commissioners, county engineer and coroner would receive $2,100-a-year pay raises under the salary bill passed Tuesday night by the Ohio House.

Commissioners would receive $1,500 raises, the engineer would be given a $3,000 increase and the coroner would draw an additional $1,050 a year.

Present and proposed salaries for each official are:

Auditor, $9,400, $11,500; treasurer and clerk of courts, $9,000, $11,100; sheriff, $7,100, $9,200; recorder, $7,200, $9,300; commissioner, $6,600, $8,100; prosecutor, 8,200, $10,300; engineer, $9,350, $12,350, and coroner $4,400, $5,450.

Rusk Meets With Red Aid On U.N. Fees

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk scheduled a second meeting with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko today in an effort to win Soviet agreement to help pay for peace-keeping operations of the United Nations.

A last-minute accord Tuesday postponing a showdown at the General Assembly opened the way for basic financial negotiations starting at a luncheon meeting of Gromyko and Rusk at the headquarters of the Soviet U.N. mission.

U.S. sources expected other East-West issues would come up also, including disarmament, trade and a U.S.-Soviet consular agreement.

The U.N. money issue had top priority. At their first meeting Monday, Rusk and Gromyko skirmished over procedure in what was termed an inconclusive session.

U.S. diplomats contended the United States gained more than it lost in Tuesday's compromise under which the General Assembly is going ahead with routine debate. Voting on important matters was put off to allow time for the backstage financial talks.

At issue is the Soviet Union's refusal to pay her U.N. assessments for the Congo and Middle East peace-keeping operations, which she says were illegal, and application of the U.N. Charter's Article 19. Article 19 says members falling two years behind in their dues — and that now includes the U.S.S.R. — shall lose their General Assembly vote.

The United States, the biggest financial contributor to the United Nations and its peace-keeping operations, says both the U.N.'s finances and its overall functioning will be gravely weakened if members can flout the charter provision at will.

The U.S. aim now is to get the Soviets to agree on a method for financing future peace-keeping operations. Washington also has reservations about the present setup in which the small-nation majority in the 115-member General Assembly can outvote the big nations footing most of the bill. It hopes to attract the Soviets with a deal giving the larger powers a bigger voice in the assembly's financial decisions.

Merchants' Group Receives Data On Christmas Program

A summary of the annual Christmas program was presented for members of the East Liverpool Merchants Association Tuesday at a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce office.

Harold Allison, chairman of the Christmas activities committee, reported on the traditional program.

He pointed out that the community Christmas tree on the Diamond, donated by Richard Sant of Park Way, was felled, transported, erected and decorated with the assistance of many individuals and companies which volunteered their services.

Allison also commented on the annual parade staged Friday night by the Junior Chamber of Commerce to mark the beginning of the holiday shopping season.

ELMA extended a vote of thanks to Jaycees for their work in organizing and presenting the parade and commented that it attracted what probably was the largest crowd in history.

Allison also reported on the Yule lights and decorations in the business district. The lights were switched on for the first time when the parade moved.

Don Eckert, as chairman of the City Planning Commission, reported on preliminary findings made to date by the firm of Carroll V. Hill & Associates in a survey of shoppers' attitudes and a study of the central business area.

The Hill concern made the surveys as part of its preparation of a "master plan" to guide future growth and development in East Liverpool.

The association commended the High School Band "for the fine publicity it has gained for the city" in recent appearances in a Thanksgiving parade in Philadelphia and in the half-time show at the Steelers-Cardinal professional football game last Sunday at Pittsburgh.

The group discussed activities for next spring and agreed to refer the program to its executive and promotion committees for a report early in 1965.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, Jan. 5, at the Chamber office.

Licenses Needed For Restaurants

LISBON — Food service operators in Columbiana County have been mailed reminders by the County Health Department that licenses must be renewed for 1965 and that X-ray records are required of all employes, according to Dr. Merle Singer, county health commissioner.

The application must be filled out and returned to the health department before Jan. 1, otherwise the restaurant owner is liable to a fine of $10 for each day of operation without the new license.

The restaurant operator must also require any new employe to furnish evidence of either a negative Mantoux test or X-ray examination for Tuberculosis within the 12-month period prior to employment.

These cards are to be kept on file at the food service operation to be available for examination by the health department at all times. This also applies to present employes as well, Dr. Singer said.

A total of 198 restaurant licenses were issued by the department for 1964.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperatures will average 1-3 degrees below normal. Representative high and low temperatures are Cleveland 39-25, Columbus 42-25 and Cincinnati 44-30. Amoderating trend at the beginning of the period will be followed by colder over the weekend and the early part of next week. Precipitation will average one-half to three fourths of an inch melted. Precipitation in northern half will be snow or snow flurries on most days of the period and over the south half rain or snow early in the period and snow over the weekend.

4 Of Science Class Join In Club Program

Four members of a junior high school science class presented a program at a meeting of the Chester Kiwanis Club Tuesday night at the City Hall auditorium.

Christina Abrams, Sherrie Barnhart, Jack Burnquist and Jerold Sayre, members of W. W. Harper's Earth Science and Home Mechanics Classes, displayed articles made at Chester Junior High School and answered questions of club members.

They were introduced by Harper, program chairman. Dr. Harvey Schondelmayer, father of the Rev. Robert Schondelmayer of Chester, and Stephen Seeley were guests.

Dr. Schondelmayer offered the invocaton. The Rev. C. Donald Vogel, president, presided. It was announced that installation of officers and Ladies Night observance will be held Jan. 5 in the First Christian Church.

A community Christmas carol sing is planned Dec. 22 in front of City Hall.

Twenty-six attended, and a board voted to contribute $100 to the Chester volunteer fire department's new truck fund and $15 to the Hancock - Brooke County Mental Health Society.

The next meeting will be Tuesday night.

Dairymen's Council Will Elect On Monday

LISBON — The Columbiana County Dairymen's Council will elect officers and reorganize at its meeting Monday night at 8 in the County Extension Service office.

Reports will be made on the brucellosis and tuberculosis eradication program being conducted in the area by Dr. D. J. Kern of Homeworth and Dr. C. M. Hyde of Jewett. Leonard Lowmiller of Minerva R. D., chairman, will preside.

Shark Pitted Against Shark To Save Fish

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — The Florida Board of Conservation is pitting shark against shark in an effort to steer them away from commercial fishing nets in the Florida keys.

Sharks are caught with heavy baited hooks and a flat board is attached to the line. The board slows the wounded shark and tires him. Other sharks, smelling blood, attack their weakened comrade.

Commercial fishermen on both the Atlantic and Gulf sides of the keys have reported uncommonly big schools of sharks tearing into their nets in search of food.

THE NEW "HEATER" COAT!

WHAT A GREAT NEW WAY TO CONQUER THOSE COLD, COLD DAYS AHEAD

Our new HEATER COAT comes equipped with it's own HEATERS, to keep you cozy, warm and dry in all seasons and all weather. And priced at only

39.95 Sizes 8 to 16

SMART NEW STYLING. Soft velvety wide-wale corduroy in sparkling red, teal blue, honey beige and rich dark brown. Water repellent and insulated. Convertible buttoned up notch-collar. Patented inside sling-pockets contain removable HEATERS. When not using heaters your sling pockets make wonderful invisible carry-alls.

The lapover split back permits sitting, without sitting on coats. Hence we call it our Full Length Car Coat. Great for all outside spectator sports. The patented sling-pockets sewed in emerges inside coat near high pockets. Holds heaters which act as handwarmers and also warm the coat, and spreads the heat via the aluminum backed milium lining. Instructions for operating are included in each heater. By removing heaters, sling-pockets can be used as invisible carry-alls, without any feeling of weight or pull to the coat. Wearable 9 months of the year.

THRILL HER THIS CHRISTMAS WITH A HEATER COAT! A WONDERFUL GIFT FOR ANY FASHION CONSCIOUS GAL.

Junior Achievement Plan Explained By Rotary Guest

Capital, stock certificates and assembly line, familiar words to businessmen everywhere, have taken on a new meaning for 170 Weirton area teen-agers taking part in a unique economic education program, the Rotary Club was told Tuesday.

The group of high school boys and girls are discovering the techniques behind the American free enterprise system through Junior Achievement, a nationwide educational organization, Stephen E. Posti of Weirton Steel Co. said in addressing the club at the Travelers Hotel.

Promoted as new editor of the Weirton Steel Co. "Bulletin," a monthly magazine published by the concern, Posti is program manager of Junior achievement in Weirton.

Supported by voluntary contributions of Weirton industries, businesses and civic and fraternal organizations, JA is providing an opportunity for the teen - agers to gain valuable practical business experience, Posti said.

He explained the typical JA company is comprised of about 20 high school students, and there are eight such companies in Weirton, operated as small-scale businesses. JA has proven so popular, Posti said, that there is a waiting line for membership by sophomores, juniors and seniors.

By selling stock at $1 a share, the youths raise capital needed by their company to manufacture and sell a useful product or service. Weirton residents purchased 1,600 shares and contributed over $10,000 in a fund drive to get the program off to a good start, he related.

The teen-agers serve on the company Board of Directors, elect their own officers, and decide the type of product they want to manufacture and market, counseled by three adult advisers.

Several of the Weirton companies are selling Christmas novelties door-to-door, and one company has gained a retail outlet for its product, Posti said.

Each company staff meets two hours one night each week to carry out their work at a building donated by Weirton Steel, using power tools and small hand tools.

At the end of 30 weeks, each company is required to liquidate its holdings, and if showing a profit, pay dividends to stockholders. But the funds are channeled into a local JA fund for activities as the group is non-profit, Posti explained.

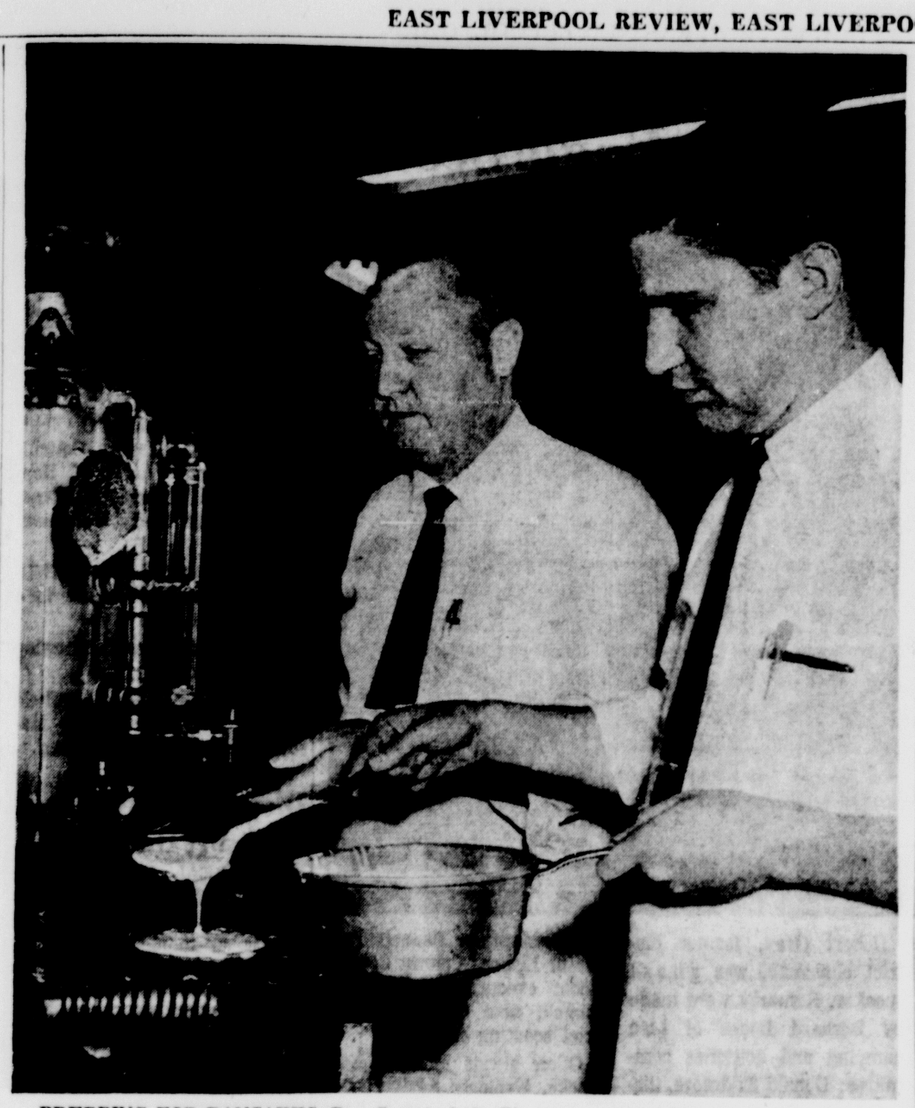

He said 75 to 80 per cent of the 5,000 JA companies in 500 communities across the nation usually end up with a profit after paying taxes, salaries and bills. Each company uses a standard record system and pays all applicable sales, excise and local and state taxes for realism, Posti explained.

Both boys and girls take part in JA, although the ratio in Weirton favors the boys 60-40. But there are two girls among the eight company presidents.

The ultimate benefactor of JA is business, Posti pointed out, because the experience gained by the youngsters in running their miniature companies turns out a more adept employe.

Robert H. Hall, superintendent of Hancock County Schools, serves on the Board of Directors of JA in Weirton.

Posti was introduced by Atty. Lawrence W. Smith, program chairman. Alvin T. Babb, president, presided.

PREPPING FOR PANCAKES. Roy Cooper, left, flips 'em as Fred Bright pours in practice for the East Liverpool Kiwanis Club's annual public pancake and sausage supper Saturday night at Westgate School. The two are co-chairmen of the event from which proceeds will be used for youth projects. Tickets will be available at the door.

Annual Inspection Set For Masonic Group

The annual inspection of the East Liverpool Chapter 100 of Royal Arch Masons will be held Saturday night at the Masonic Temple.

Dinner will be served at 6 p. m., followed with the conferring of the Royal Arch degree at 7:30. Eric G. Nyberg of Salem will be inspecting officer. Eric R. Young, high priest, will be in charge of the degree work.

Oak Glen School Play Set Friday, Saturday

Oak Glen High School students will present a school play, "Bull In a China Shop", Friday and Saturday nights at 8 at the Little Theater on the campus.

Charles W. Morris is director of the three-act mystery comedy with a cast of 12 boys and girls. The play is adapted from a short story by Ellery Queen, mystery author.

Chester Club's Guest Speaks On 'Shakers' Sect

Bennett Taylor of Lisbon, executive officer of the Columbiana County Boy Scout Council, spoke on "Jump for Joy," outlining the life of the Shakers, a religious sect of the 19th Century, at a meeting of the Chester Women's Club Monday afternoon with Mrs. David Boyce of Neptune Ave.

He was introduced by Mrs. Eugene Seeley, president, who presided. "Fine Arts" was the program topic.

Mrs. Helen McClain led devotions on the topic, "Fill the Spaces." Mrs. Richard Barnhart was in charge of roll call on "Types of Art."

Mrs. Mabel Wagner reported on a Parent - Teacher Association meeting in November in Huntington, and the club endorsed the 1964 resolutions of the state PTA Congress.

Donations were approved to the Penny Art Fund, Citizens Scholarship Fund, Pan - American Scholarship, CARE and Camp Galahad.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Jessie Hagaman, associate hostess. Mrs. W. W. Ingram and Mrs. F. E. Pinney will assist the social committee at the Christmas tea Dec. 14 at 8 o'clock at the First Christian Church. Instead of a Christmas exchange, money will be donated to the Hancock-Brooke County Mental Health League.

Hearing For Motorist Scheduled On Friday

Ronald A. Ream, 36, of Clark St. is scheduled for a Municipal Court hearing Friday at 9 a. m. on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Cited Tuesday night at 7:20 on Pennsylvania Ave. by Patrolman Sam Hays, Ream requested a continuance to obtain counsel when he appeared this morning before Acting Judge Paul Tobin.

The court entered a not guilty plea for Ream and set his appearance bond at $500. Ream indicated he would post a property bond.

ABLE To Hold Levy Promotion

Plans for promotion of a proposed Beaver Local School District 5.4 mill levy in a special election Jan. 5 were made at a meeting of the Association for Advancement of Beaver Local Education (ABLE) Tuesday night at the public school.

A telephone canvass along with newspaper and radio advertising was discussed.

Bills totaling $673 from the November campaign and other projects were paid. Dr. Arthur Cloran, president, was in charge.

Area chairmen filed reports.

Ware Customer Writes

TV Appearance Of Band Boosts Mail To Chamber

Letters are starting to shower down on the Chamber of Commerce as the result of the High School Band's nationally - televised appearance in a Thanksgiving parade at Philadelphia, including an enquiry from a prospective dinnerware customer and a homesick note from a former Ohioan now living in California.

The band was preceded by a huge banner reading: "East Liverpool, Ohio, Pottery Center of the World," which made it particularly easy for the prospective letter writers to pick out the address.

Donald T. Bell of Cambridgeport, Vt., identifying himself as proprietor of a store, asked the Chamber for a list of dinnerware manufacturers, explaining he is in the market for ware.

"In watching television Thanksgiving Day, a band from your town was represented and mentioned — "the largest pottery center in the world," he wrote.

"Would you kindly give me some names of the companies so I may contact them in regard to plates, etc., as we sell them in our store," he added.

E. R. Chandler, executive manager of the Chamber, said a full list of all dinnerware manufacturers is on its way to Bell.

The Chamber keeps an up-to-date list of all manufacturers, which it furnishes on request, and it also can supply lists of those in particular categories cited by the writers, he pointed out.

The homesick former Ohioan is Carl A. Bechtol, 84, a native of Galion who resides in a trailer court in El Monte, Calif.

Bechtol wrote that he was particularly pleased to see an Ohio band on TV "because that is where I war born in 1879."

Although Thanksgiving was a bright day in the East, "it was gloomy here," Bechtol wrote.

"I have a good TV set and I watch out for everything," he added. "Soon we will have the Rose Bowl Game. I want to say I sure did enjoy your band. I would like to hear from some of the people there."

In addition to the Thanksgiving parade, the band appeared in the half-time show last Sunday when the Pittsburgh Steelers met the St. Louis Cardinals in a professional football game at Pittsburgh.

Couple Jailed For Falsifying Papers To Wed

MARION, Ohio (AP)—Probate Judge Edward J. Ruzzo has sentenced a young Marion couple to 60 days in jail until they tell who helped them falsify an affidavit so they could be wed.

Fined $50 each and sentenced are Lawrence Lee Lawhun, 20, and his blonde bride, Helene Goble, 17.

Lawhun told the court he paid a woman $25 to pose as Miss Goble's mother when the couple applied for a marriage license at the Marion County courthouse Nov. 25. Ohio law requires persons under 18 to have parental consent to marry.

Judge Ruzzo told the couple he was going to send them to jail until they purged themselves of a contempt charge for not naming the woman. Lawhun is in Marion County Jail. His bride is 23 miles away at the Wyandot County Jail in Upper Sandusky. The Marion jail has no facilities for women prisoners.

Winter Sports To Be Provided

Keith Dunlevy, director of the City Recreation Council, said it will supervise winter sports in the city again this year, consisting primarily of sled riding and ice skating.

Dunlevy said anyone desiring part-time employment as a supervisor may phone him at 385-7942.

Places for the activities will be announced later, he said, with hours the same as last year.

Weekday hours will be 6 to 10 in the evenings, with Saturday and holiday hours 1 to 5 and 6 to 10 p.m.

Midway Grange Rites To Be Held Saturday

LISBON — Midway Grange will present pins to 50 - year members at a coverdish dinner party Saturday at 6:30 p. m. at the Grange Hall on the Columbiana Rd.

Fairfield and Elkrun Grange members will take part in the affair, which is open to the public. A lecturer's program will follow the dinner. Harold Knee is master.

To Break Ground

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ground is to be broken April 1 for a seven-story $3,370,000 expansion at Huron Road Hospital. Plans were announced Tuesday by F. Alex Nason, president of the board of trustees. The expansion program, approved by the joint hospital committee of Cleveland, calls for increasing the hospital's bed capacity from 378 to 580. The program is scheduled for completion in 1985.

Members Asked For Civic Group In South Beaver

The South Beaver County Civic Association has begun its 1965 membership drive, according to J. S. Miller, secretary.

In contacting prospective members, the association asked for ideas on how it might function for the benefit of the entire South Beaver County area.

The association noted the opening of the New Midland-Shippingport bridge and listed several "undesirable situations" which it said could develop in the area if advanced planning is not backed by sound legislation.

Pointed out as possible problems were "fast buck operators" who would move in for a killing in homes and real estate; an unzoned mixture of residential-industrial - commercial development, water and sewage problems and higher tax structures.

Persons desiring membership or further information may contact Miller at Aliquippa R. D. 2, Box 294. The next meeting of the organization will be announced.

Jurors To Be Named

LISBON — The names of 200 persons will be drawn from the jury wheel in Common Pleas Court Monday, Dec. 14, at 10 a. m. The first 30 will be notified as prospective Grand Jurors and the remaining 170 will serve as petit jurors for the January term of court, according to J. Clifford Conley of East Liverpool and James S. Gregg of Salem, jury commissioners.

City Girl Enlists In WAVES; Navy Signs 7 Men In County

Machinist's Mate 1C Richard L. Cothran, East Liverpool Navy recruiter, said a city girl enlisted in the WAVES and seven men were recruited during November in Columbiana County.

Miss Marie Ann Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett LeRoy Moore, 928 Morton St., will take her training at the Naval Training Center for Women at Bainbridge, Md. She is a 1962 graduate of East Liverpool High School.

Enlisting at Salem were Richard D. Ashead, son of Mrs. Freda B. Ashead; Edward R. Weiss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris B. Weiss of Pittsburgh; James Tolan Criss Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Tolan Criss, 220 Lee Ave., Lisbon; Terry Howard Shipley, son of Mrs. Mary Louise Humeniuk; Terry Lee Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur C. Ferguson, and Robert Vadis Beltempo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy A. Beltempo, all of Salem.

Ashead is a gradutae of Salem High School which Ferguson and Beltempo also attended. Criss attended David Anderson High School and Weiss attended Taylor Allderdice High School in Pittsburgh. Ashead, Shipley, Weiss and Criss are now in training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, while Beltempo is taking his training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

Ferguson, who was a member of the Naval Reserve, will not undergo basic training and has reported to the Naval Receiving Station at Philadelphia for further assignment.

One prior serviceman re-enlisted — Terry Wayne McKinney, son of Mrs. Helen Spears, 205 6th Ave. McKinney attended East Liverpool High School prior to his three year enlistment in the Army. Upon expiration of 15 days leave, McKinney will report to the Naval Receiving Station at Philadelphia for further assignment.

Patrol Cites Man In Rt. 30 Crash

A 50-year-old Lisbon area man was cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol Tuesday for driving while intoxicated after his car and one operated by a city man collided on Route 30 near West Point.

Virgil Pasco of Lisbon R.D. 2 was also cited for failure to yield the right-of-way after his 1955 Mercedes Benz sedan collided with a 1955 coach operated by Elvin Edward Walton, 45, of 603 McKinnon Ave.

Officers said Pasco was headed north on Route 30 about 4.6 miles south of Lisbon and attempted to make a left turn into Township Rd. 872.

His car went into the path of the southbound auto of Walton. Neither driver was hurt, officers said, but Pasco's car had about $300 damage while Walton's had about $50 damage.

The mishap occurred at 3:10 p.m.

Women's CD Council Has Christmas Fete

The East Liverpool Women's Civil Defense Council held its annual Christmas dinner meeting Tuesday evening at Piatt's Tea Room in Wellsville.

Following brief business conducted by Miss Betty Brookes, president, a Christmas gift exchange was held and secret pals were revealed.

The next meeting will be held Jan. 7 at 7:30 p.m. at the City Hall.

35 Units And 4 Bands In Palestine Parade

EAST PALESTINE — Several thousand viewed a Christmas parade of 35 units and four bands sponsored here Tuesday night by the Chamber of Commerce.

Christmas street lights were turned on for the season. Parking meter fees have been suspended for the remainder of the month for holiday shoppers, city officials said.

'Tampering' Ban Okayed

ing Corp. at Steubenville. He was accompanied by Atty. Ben Berman of East Liverpool and Atty. Charles Pike of Lisbon.

Rau briefly explained the proposition made by his firm previously and asked "serious consideration."

City Revenue Source

The Steubenville firm, a subsidiary of Rust Craft Co., which operates WSTV-TV at Steubenville, has offered to pay the city a set amount of money each year for the franchise.

The Hoboken firm has never offered any remuneration to the city for the franchise.

Council already has given two readings to the ordinance granting the franchise to Rego Industries. Neptune's proposal was disregarded previously.

Council will hold another caucus session next Tuesday night at 8 to discuss the situation.

Councilman Walter Henthorne was absent and Councilman Charles Stoddard did not arrive until the caucus was almost over.

In other business, Council agreed to meet sometime today with members of the Board of Control and William Gitschier, owner of Gitschier's Service Station, 566 Main St., on a request to cancel the gasoline contract with the city.

Cites Hike In Prices

Gitschier sent a letter to the board, requesting the contract be voided, claiming gasoline prices have increased and he is losing 2 cents on each gallon sold to the city.

Gitschier's bid was the only one received last summer. His contract expires next June.

Solicitor William Bush said Gitschier is bound by the contract, unless the city wants to let him out of it. If so, the city will have to readvertise for bids, he said.

Bush said Gitschier could be held to the contract and sued if he refuses to sell gasoline to the city as required by the contract.

It was pointed out he sells the city only gasoline, with all other accessories and oil being purchased elsewhere.

Mrs. Mary Rahter, Council president, was to set the time of the meeting for this afternoon or tonight.

Road Conference Asked

Wayne Rose, clerk, was instructed to write Earl Nelson, director of Division 11 of the State Highway Department at New Philadelphia, requesting a meeting on the proposed Route 7 relocation through Wellsville.

Council has discussed the proposal in the past, but no meetings have been held for some time with Division 11 officials.

Council received a request from Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 11 and its civilian Affiliate FOP Associates Lodge 51 for permission to make copies of accident reports for sale to insurance companies.

The lodges said in a letter they are contemplating the purchase of a copying machine for use in the police department. They asked to be allowed to sell copies of the reports to the insurance companies to help defray the costs of the purchase and materials.

Doubts Legal Sanction

Bush said he does not know if the city could give legal sanction to such a project and pointed out the city has no control over private lodges. He also pointed out there might be legal complications as the machine would be used on city property and that city records would be used.

Legislation granting the lodges permission was ordered pending approval by the solicitor.

A letter was received from the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. advising that repairs will be made soon to the crossing at 3rd and Commerce Sts.

Notification was received from the Columbiana County Board of Elections that $129.50 will be withheld from the city tax settlement for the city's cost of the floodwall levy election.

Might Obtain Grant

Henthorne, in a letter, asked the water and sewage committee to check the possibility of obtaining a federal grant for the installation of a new water line from the filtration plant and asked Council to consider what aid might be given to support the improvement of Johnston Airport at Hillcrest.

Councilman Nunzio Lombardozzi reported the city crew is working on a sewer problem at the lower end of town.

Councilman Dwight MacLean said a woman was injured in a fall on a sidewalk and was referred to the city's insurance firm.

Mrs. Rahter said she had received a complaint of parking on Cemetery Hill.

The Rev. Bruce Davis gave the opening prayer.

Youngstown Reserve Group Seeks Recruits

The 910th Troop Carrier Group, a Reserve unit stationed at Youngstown Municipal Airport, said today it has a new quota for enlistment of recruits under the so-called non-prior service program.

Men 18-26 who are high school graduates may satisfy military obligations by enlisting in the Air Froce Reserve, serving six months' active duty and spending the remaining time in a Reserve unit.

Applications will be accepted Saturday at 8 a.m. at the personnel office at the unit's headquarters. Interested men may obtain further information by telephoning FR. 4-1551.

Pay Dispute Of 2 Settled In Hancock

Hancock County commissioners Tuesday initialed two checks amounting to $2,160 in back pay for two women employes in the tax collection office of Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny, ending a dispute of more than a year.

The checks for $1,155 for Miss Eleanor Patterson and $1,005 for Mrs. Irene Cullen represented back pay for the months of January, February and March 1963.

The two were awarded salary increases of $25 monthly in 1963 by Sheriff Manypenny, but Commissioner William C. Graham dissented and refused to authorize the pay hikes.

The dispute went to Judge James G. McClure of Hancock County Circuit Court who upheld the sheriff's right to award pay hikes, and Graham appealed to the State Supreme Court.

In a recent ruling, the high court upheld Judge McClure's decision that the two women were entitled to the salary hikes and that they should receive the back pay.

Commissioner Jack Evans questioned payment of $293.50 by County Court to Atty. William J. Moore of Weirton. The funds, he said, represented Moore's fees to represent Graham in the litigation. Evans said the fee was before commissioners in September and was disapproved by him and James Finley. But payment was approved "behind my back" at the October meeting of Graham and Finley, Evans charged.

Finley commented he authorized payment on recommendation of Prosecutor Floyd R. Tarr. Evans said he was not certain whether Atty. Moore represented County Court or Graham personally in the litigation.

2 Masses Set Friday For Church At Lisbon

LISBON — First Friday devotions at St. George's Catholic Church in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus will consist of two High Masses — one at 7:30 a. m. and the other at 7 p. m.

In preparation, confessions will be heard Thursday from 7 to 8 p. m. and Friday evening at 6:30.

The 7 p. m. Mass will be sung by the Girls' Choir directed by Miss Betty McKenna, with Miss Jo Ann Klug as organist.

Saturday morning, High Mass will be offered in honor of Our Lady of Fatima, to whom the first Saturday of the month is dedicated. Fr. William Hohman is pastor.

Pape Shows Height, Experience At Beaver Local

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

6 Vets Return, Opener Set Friday

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

If John Pape, starting his second year at Beaver Local, seems optimistic about the 1964-65 basketball season he has several reasons to feel that way.

Every basketball coach dreams of height and experience and that's what Berver Local has this season.

How far the height and experience will go won't be known until his forces are season tested as the campaign will get underway this weekend.

BEAVER Local opens its season with two straight road games traveling to Western Beaver Friday night and meeting the Tigers at Wellsville Saturday.

Six letter winners including four starters are returning from last year's club which compiled a 3-15 record. However, the record isn't as bad as it seems since the Beavers lost several contests last season by narrow margins.

Leading the group of veterans is Ben Springer, 6-5 senior, who was the team's leading scorer and rebounder last season. Pape in looking over Springer said "our success this season will depend partly upon Ben being able to get his shots in close, rather than outside where he played last year as a forward."

SPRINGER averaged 15.8 points per game last season and has lettered for the past two years.

Another two-year letterman is Dennis Horger, a 5-11 senior guard, who ran into some tough luck last year. Horger missed the first 11 games because of a knee injury. As a sophomore, Horger was the second top scorer on the team.

"We look for Dennis to have his best season and to be one of the better guards in the district this year," Pape said.

ANOTHER hard luck case returning this season is Norm Gaydos, 6-foot senior, who was a starter last year until a broken ankle in the tenth game kept him out the remainder of the season.

"Norm finished as our number four scorer last year with a 10.7 average. He is a fine shot and is starting to get back in stride after suffering a broken shoulder in football."

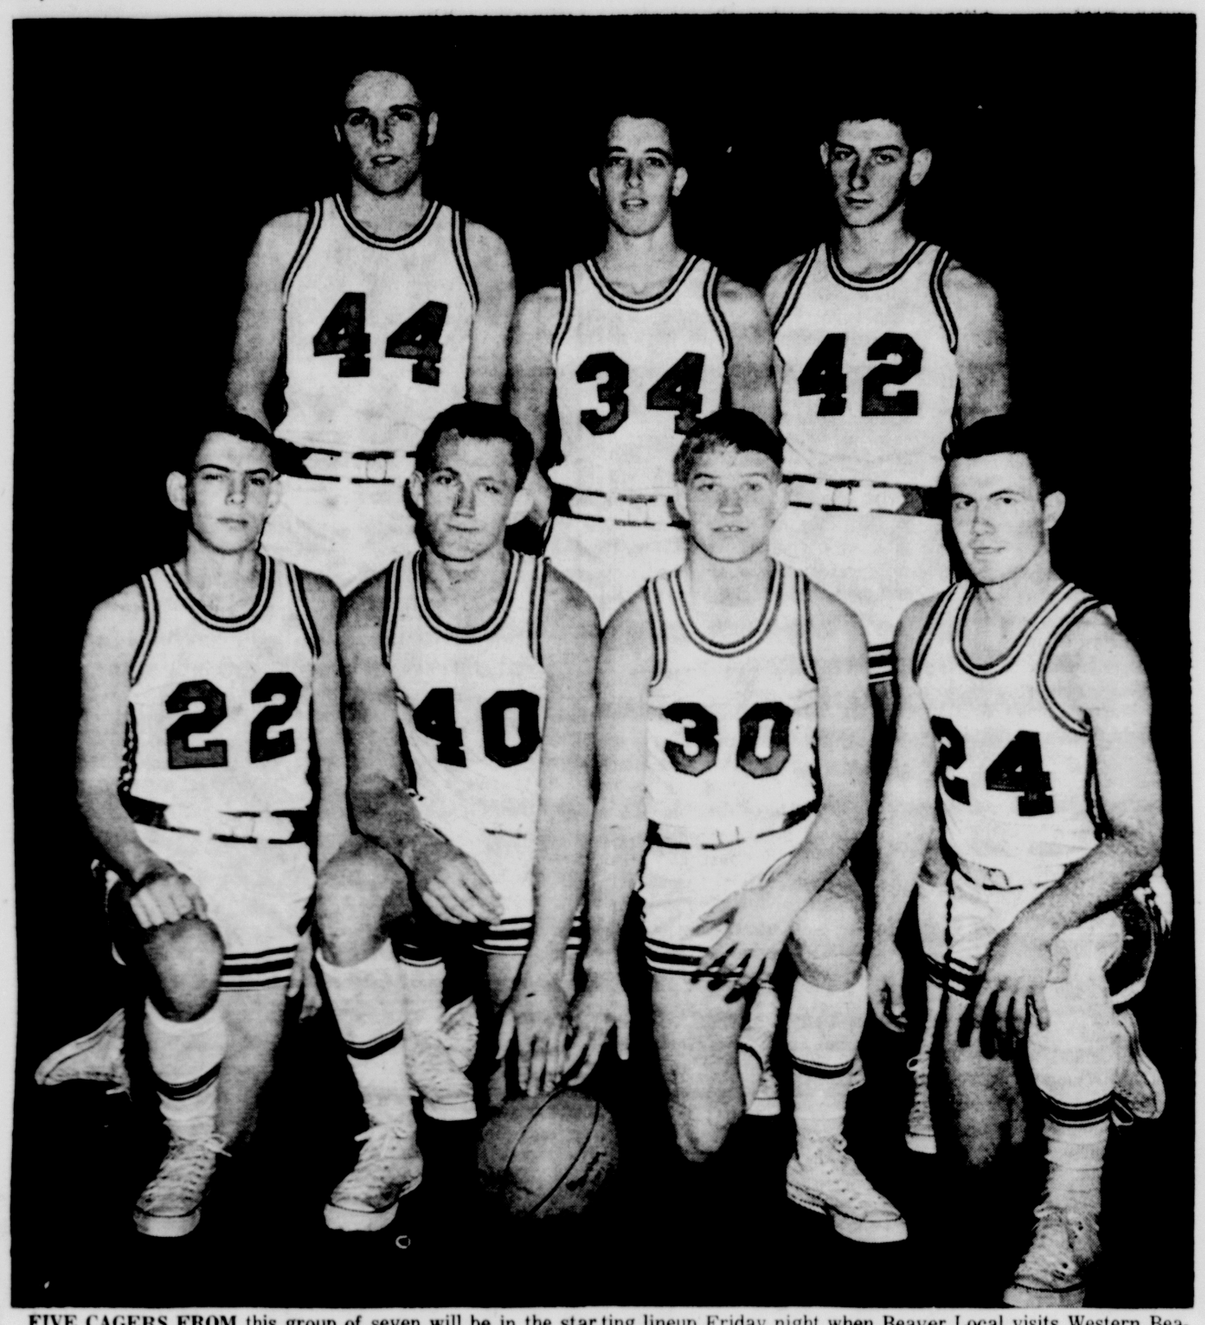

Dick Rudibaugh, a 6-3 senior, will give the Beavers some added height. Pape pointed out that "Dick started the last 15 games for us last year as our center and wound up third in scoring but had the best field goal percentage."

"He is being slowed at the present with a leg injury suffered during football season but we expect him to be a starter and one of our leading rebounders this season."

—:—

TWO OTHER letter winners didn't start but saw action in

(Turn to Beaver Local, page 14)

FIVE CAGERS FROM this group of seven will be in the starting lineup Friday night when Beaver Local visits Western Beaver. These seven players who will be seeing most of the action for the Beavers this season include first row—left-to-right—Jim Hamilton, Larry Roberts, Norm Gaydos and Dennis Horger. Second row—Ben Springer, Don Goodman and Dick Rudibaugh.

W. Beaver Routs Mars For Second

Western Beaver rolled to its second straight exhibition victory with a 70-54 decision Tuesday night at Mars.

Coach George Hromank's Western five followed the same script which netted a victory in the opening game by rallying the second half.

Western Beaver held a 34-33 edge at halftime last night but outscored Mars, 19-7 in the third period to take a commanding 53-40 lead into the final quarter.

Four Western starters broke into the double figures with Ken Brandt leading the parade with 21 points. He was followed by Gary Shreve and Bruce Singleton with 18 each while Bernie Schmidt added 11.

Fitzgerald topped Mars in the scoring department with 20.

Western Beaver will entertain Beaver Local Friday.

The Golden Beavers reserve team posted a 56-45 win in the preliminary.

Williams Scores 28 In W.Va. Frosh Game

MORGANTOWN — Ron Williams opened the season with a 28 - point performance in leading the West Virginia freshmen to a 96-73 victory over the West Virginia Tech reserves in Tuesday's preliminary game to the West Virginia-Citadel battle.

Williams, who won nationwide recognition with Weirton High School last year, also secured 10 rebounds and was credited with 10 assists.

Davidson Rally Tops Wake Forest

Michigan, Other Top Clubs Take Openers As Expected

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The University of Michigan Wolverines, ranked No. 1 in The Associated Press pre-season poll, opened the college basketball season impressively Tuesday night with a 92-70 romp against Ball State.

The fourth-ranked Davidson Wildcats, the fifth-ranked Duke Blue Devils and the ninth-ranked San Francisco Dons, the only other teams in the Top Ten to see action, similarly got off on the right foot.

Davidson came from behind to defeat Wake Forest 95-88, Duke whipped Virginia Tech 98-63 and San Francisco downed Oregon State 66-58.

Oregon State's setback marked the coaching debut of Paul Valenti for the Beavers. Johnny Oldham also suffered a defeat in his coaching debut at Western Kentucky. The Hilltoppers were upset by Belmont, Tenn., 52-50.

Other new coaches won their first games. Notre Dame beat Lewis 99-87 for Johnny Dee, South Carolina downed Erskine 76-59 for Frank McGuire, Iowa tramped South Dakota 93-70 for Ralph Miller and Marquette drubbed St. Thomas 69-49 for Al McGuire.

Cazzie Russell with 33 points led the Michigan attack that crushed Ball State. Big 6-foot-8 Fred Hetzel tossed in 28 points as Davidson wiped out an early 10-point Wake Forest lead to down the Deacons. Hack Tison's 24 points sparked Duke over Virginia Tech and Russ Gumina led San Francisco over Oregon State with 21 points.

Minnesota, expected to provide stern opposition for Michigan in the Big Ten, crushed South Dakota State 101-55. St. Louis, favored to win the Missouri Valley Conference, slaughtered North Dakota State 114-50. Kansas, the Big Eight favorite, came from 14 points back to defeat Arkansas 65-60 and North Carolina, expected to contend with Duke for the Atlantic Coast Conference crown, overcame Clemson 77-59.

Warfield Listed Doubtful Starter

CLEVELAND (AP) — Paul Warfield of the Cleveland Browns is hobbling. Sonny Randle of the St. Louis Cardinals is out for the season. The two injuries could put a crimp in the passing attack of both teams Sunday when they meet in a key game to determine the Eastern Division championship.

Warfield, ace slot end and candidate for rookie of the year award in the National Football League, pulled his leg muscle again last Sunday and is on the "doubtful" list.

Randall, Cardinals' sure-handed end and deep threat, is out for the season after undergoing surgery for a shoulder injury.

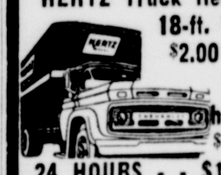

If Warfield sits on the bench, coach Blanton Collier may use either Clifton McNeil or little Walter Roberts to fill the spot. McNeil has seen limited action and Roberts is a punt and kickoff return specialist. Both are first year men and fast.

Billy Gambrell is Randle's likely replacement. Quarterback Charley Johnson has capable receivers in end Taz Anderson and flanker Bobby Joe Conrad.

Except for Warfield, the Browns are healthy. Linebacker and captain Galen Fiss has played with a cast on this thumb and is expected to do the same Sunday.

The Browns have a 1½ game edge over the second place Cardinals and a victory at Busch Stadium will put Cleveland in the NFL playoff game Dec. 27 against the Baltimore Colts. The Browns, however, can lose Sunday and still win the division title by beating the New York Giants Dec. 12.

When Danny Murtaugh resigned as manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates his entire coaching staff of Len Levy, Sam Narron, Frank Oceak, Don Osborn and Mickey Vernon was released.

Bearcats, Toledo Pass First Tests

By The Associated Press

Ohio's college basketball teams got the infant season off to a fine start Tuesday night by winning eight of the nine games played against out - of-state teams.

Only Ohio University, of the Buckeye squads who faced non-Ohio quintets, fell—81-70 victims of Indiana.

Toledo downed Kentucky Wesleyan, 76-71; Cincinnati defeated George Washington, 80-72; Kent State walloped Wayne State, 119-80; Steubenville rolled over Marshall, 85 - 78; Central State smashed Anderson, 86-570 Marietta whipped Glenville State, 91-74; Muskingum knocked off West Liberty State, 79-61, and Oberlin edged Adrain, 76-73.

In the five intrastate games played Tuesday night, Capital defeated Denison, 79-53, and Akron smashed Baldwin-Wallace, 83-62, in Ohio Conference contests; Cedarville slipped by Rio Grande, 74-69; Hiram bounced Fenn, 91-75, and Youngstown edged Ashland, 43-41.

Although a couple of Ohio teams have already put two or three games under their belts, Tuesday night's card presented the first big cage night with games on 14 different floors.

In the Ohio U.-Indiana fray at Bloomington, the first-stringers for Indiana got off to a ragged start and substitutes kept the Hoosiers in contention in the first half. Ohio U. began falling behind in the second half and Indiana stayed on top the rest of the way. Don Hilt paced the Ohioans with 27 points.

Hotshooting and good backboard control were the deciding factors in Toledo's homecourt victory over Kentucky Wesleyan. The Rockets, paced by Bob Aston's 18 points, went ahead in the first half and never fell behind.

The 119 points scored by Kent State against Wayne State set a Kent field house record and team scoring mark.

Steubenville fended off a late Marshall surge in beating the Big Green on the West Virginians' floor. John Hummell led the Barons with 23 points, 17 of them in the second half.

The Capital and Akron victories gave the teams the first night lead in the big Ohio Conference. None of the other loop squads has seen conference action yet.

Kiggans Plays Key Role In Citadel Win

Bob Kiggans, former Wellsville basketball standout, was instrumental in The Citadel's 75-73 victory over West Virginia Tuesday night at Morgantown.

Kiggans, a co-captain for the Cadets, didn't start but played the last 30 minutes and sank five clutch points in the late stages of the contest along with having several assists.

Bears Sign Gale Sayres

College Coaches Blast Pro Grid Leagues For Tampering Too Early

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Money talks — and makes college coaches scream.

It spoke to Kansas halfback Gale Sayers and Tennessee guard Steve DeLong, giving the Chicago Bears of the National Football League a split Tuesday with the rival American League as the multi million-dollar pro football war continued.

Sayers and DeLong — both picked on the first round of the NFL draft by the Bears — went different ways. Chicago won the battle for Sayers against the Kansas City Chiefs but lost DeLong to the AFL's San Diego Chargers in the first major breakthrough for the younger league.

Meanwhile, both leagues came under fire from college coaches for signing futures — players who still have a year of college eligibility remaining but whose college class has graduated and thus are eligible to be drafted.

The two cases involved Los Angeles State tackle Walt Johnson, signed by the NFL's Cleveland Browns, and Arizona State halfback Larry Todd, signed by the Oakland Raiders of the AFL. Coaches from each team said they were considering official protests.

"They don't have any business signing a boy when he has a year to play," said Los Angeles State Coach Homer Beatty. "They waved so much money in the boy's face he couldn't turn it down. They have no regard for the boy or his coach."

Browns President Art Modell said "it's ridiculous" to the charge of waving money at Johnson and said Cleveland "found out he had no intention of going back to school. The Browns never have and never will take people out of school to play football."

Todd's coach, Frank Kush, charged the Raiders talked to the player throughout the season and implied this was unethical since the coaching staff was not contacted.

The American League, meanwhile, signed its first No. 1 pick in direct competition with the NFL when DeLong agreed to a San Diego contract. DeLong said he was "very honored to be considered by both clubs. The offers were about the same but I decided to go with San Diego."

The split kept the NFL out front of the AFL in signing first-round draft choices. NFL clubs have signed five No. 1 selections and lost only DeLong. The AFL, meanwhile, has signed three of its top picks and also lost three to the National League.

Howard On Trading Block; Phillies Look At Belinsky

HOUSTON (AP) — Baseball's ranking intellects have resolved the momentous question of what constitutes a legal catcher's mitt. While nothing is likely to overshadow the celebration that will surely follow such an event, there is still some curiosity about where Frank Howard and Bo Belinsky, among others, will be playing next season.

Despite expressions of doubt by some club executives, these rumbles persist at the winter baseball meetings:

— Howard, the 6-foot-7 outfielder of the Los Angeles Dodgers, will be traded to Houston for third-baseman Bob Aspromonte and pitcher Ken Johnson, or to Milwaukee for third baseman Ed Mathews, or to Kansas City for outfielder Rocky Colavito.

— Belinsky, the calamity-prone left-hander of the Los Angeles Angels, will be traded for one or more Philadelphia Phillies.

There was also a rumor Tuesday that San Francisco would trade pitchers Bob Shaw and Billy O'Dell to the New York Yankees for catcher-outfielder John Blanchard. But that one was vigorously denied by both clubs.

About the catcher's mitt:

The playing rules committee outlawed the Big Berthas used to catch some knuckleball pitchers. The committee decided the mitt may be no more than 38 inches in circumference.

A conventional mitt is 33 to 34 inches. The Big Berthas, described by committee chairman Charles Segar as "burlesque gloves," are up to 45 inches.

Said Houston General Manager Paul Richards, who designed the first Big Bertha for knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm a few years back:

"I don't think anything should be done about the mitt because it wasn't hurting anybody. Ninety-nine per cent of baseball's appeal stems from its simplicity. But we keep trying to complicate it."

Turning to trade talk, Richards said he doubted Houston would make a deal for Howard. Dodger General Manager Buzzie Bavasi said he and Richards would talk today, but Richards said they'd already done considerable talking without accomplishing anything.

Walker, Pastrano Picked For Top Boxing Awards

NEW YORK (AP) — Mickey Walker, one of the swashbuckling sports idols of the Golden Twenties, and light-heavyweight champion Willie Pastrano were selected today to receive two of boxing's most prized awards.

Walker, the 63-year-old former welterweight and middleweight champion who feared no one and took on heavyweights, was chosen for the James J. Walker award for "long and meritorious service to boxing." He is a member of Boxing's Hall of Fame.

Pastrano, the 29-year-old king of the 175-pound division, was picked for the Edward J. Neil award as the Boxing Writers' Association's Fighter of the Year.

The BWA's two major awards will be presented at the organization's 39th annual dinner at the Waldorf Astoria in New York, Sunday, Jan. 17.

Tagged the "Toy Bulldog" back in the Golden Twenties, Walker held the welterweight title from Nov. 1, 1922, to May 20, 1926, and the middleweight crown from Dec. 3, 1926 to June 19, 1931.

The Ring Record book credits Walker with 148 fights, including 93 victories, 18 defeats and four draws. He also had 32 no-decision bouts and one called no contest. He scored 58 knockouts.

Pastrano, a pro since 1951, won the light heavyweight crown from Harold Johnson 18 months ago.

He has scored only 13 knockouts, mostly TKO's, in compiling a 63-12-8 won-lost-draw record. He has been stopped only once, on cuts by heavyweight Brian London.

most of the contests. They are Don Goodman 6-2 senior and Jim Hamilton 5-9 guard.

"Goodman got into eleven games last year and is expected to be a big help inside with some added experience," Pape said.

"Hamilton played in all but three games a year ago. He is a steady player and is being counted on to fill the job of playmaker for us."

—:—

WHILE Pape has the six senior letter winners on hand, he expects a junior, Larry Roberts, 6-1, to crack the starting unit.

Pape said, "Larry is the only junior in line for a starting berth and right now is looking very impressive although having no varsity experience. He has very good moves and with added experience and confidence will be a big help to us."

The Beaver coach also mentioned two others up from the reserve squad in junior John Green, a 6-footer, and Roy Cooper, 5-9 senior.

"We have seven boys who are fighting for the starting five spots. I feel with some confidence this team can be the second squad at Beaver Local to have a winning season." Pape said.

THE ONLY winning record posted by a Beaver Local team came in the 1960-61 campaign when the mark was 12-5.

"Looking at our schedule, you will find 12 different schools represented and seven of these teams, Beaver Local has never beaten in basketball," the Beaver coach added.

While the Beavers go on the road for the first two games, they will play their initial home game with North Lima on Dec. 11. Beaver Local also will compete in the Buckeye Border Conference with Wellsville the first league game.

Assisting Pape again this season is Don Ross.

Johnson Gives Luncheon For 109 Olympic Stars

WASHINGTON (AP) — What do Olympic athletes talk about when they get together at the White House?

The answer is simple. After the initial nervousness wears off, and the "ohs" and "ahs" have been said, they talk about the Olympics.

There were 109 in all — out of 125 American medalists — at the unprecedented luncheon President Johnson gave Tuesday to salute the team. The missing were mostly on tour in Europe.

President Johnson was unable to attend the luncheon because of an important conference with Ambassador Maxwell Taylor and Cabinet members on the subject of Viet Nam. Later he told the athletes:

"You exemplify the ideal of our nation for all phases of the public life . . . you have symbolized for all of us Americans what taking part — a genuine, dedicated all-out part — can produce, and we salute you for it with a pride that carries a full measure of gratitude."

The American team at Tokyo won 36 firsts to 30 for a highly disappointed Russia. Counting team medals, in all 125 Americans won 150 medals. This is the first time Olympians have ever been invited to the White House.

Here's the way the conversation ran at a typical table:

Don Schollander, Lake Oswego, Ore., winner of four gold medals in swimming — "How good is the Russian basketball team?"

Joe Caldwell, Texas City, Tex., a member of the winning basketball team — "They're good, but they haven't been playing the game long enough."

Schollander was the conversational center of the table just as he was the star of the Games — an unpretentious, well-spoken, pink-cheeked youth of 18.

During the luncheon each of the athletes, as unobtrusively as possible, pocketed the white match books that read "The President's House" and the carefully lettered luncheon menus.

When it was over they filed back to the East Room to hear and meet the President, their big day at an end.

Jurgensen Ties Starr In Passing

NEW YORK (AP) — If Sonny Jurgensen had been healthy all year, the Washington Redskins might have been in the thick of the race in the National Football League's Eastern Conference.

Jurgensen missed the pre-season exhibitions because of an injury and had to take over a new club under the pressure of regular season. It took time to learn the habits of his new receivers after spending years at Philadelphia.

The former Duke star hit it big Sunday with 319 yards against the New York Giants. It was his third 300-plus day of the season. The Redskins have won six of their last eight games.

Jurgensen's latest effort put him in a tie with Bart Starr of Green Bay for the NFL passing lead, figured on a complicated basis of percentage of completions, touchdown passes, percentage of interceptions and average yards gained.

Jimmy Brown continues to run away with the rushing race. The Cleveland fullback has gained 1,288 yards on the ground in 241 carries and leads John Henry Johnson of Pittsburgh by 369 yards. Johnson is being closely pressed by Jim Taylor of Green Bay.

Johnny Morris, the Chicago Bears' brilliant flanker, has set a record for pass receptions with 90 for 1,171 yards and 10 touchdowns. Mike Ditka of the Bears is second with 70 catches.

The biggest All - Stars win in a game against the National Football League champions was 27 to 7, over Washington, in 1943.

Oscar Leads Royals Over Detroit Five

By The Associated Press

Ray Crowe, the basketball coach at Indianapolis Attucks High School, has a new book on his shelf today but he won't have to read it to get the message. Oscar Robertson, Crowe's star pupil, has seen to that.

Robertson returned to Indianapolis Tuesday night and gave his former coach the book "Play Better Basketball" before leading the Cincinnati Royals past the Detroit Pistons 129-106 in a National Basketball Association game.

Oscar, who paced Attucks to Indiana high school championships in 1955 and 1956, connected on 11 of 18 shots from the floor and three of four free throws for a game-high 25 points as the Royals kept pace with Boston's Eastern Division leaders.

The Celtics topped New York in overtime 117-113 behind sharp-shooting Sam Jones and held their 3½-game Eastern bulge. The Los Angeles Lakers, Western Division front- runners, nipped Philadelphia 118-117

Westgaters Win Opener

Westgate opened its 1964-65 basketball season on a successful note Tuesday with a 48-18 rout of Weirton Madonna at the West End court.

Bob McKinnon paced Coach Pick Rolley's team with 12 points while Earl Diddle chipped in with eight.

Westgate will play at East Palestine Thursday with game time at 5:15.

East Junior Opens Season Thursday

East Junior High will open its basketball season Thursday at 4:30 p.m. against Beaver Local at the East End gym.

Gino Marchetti coaches the defensive ends for the Baltimore Colts in the National Football League.

Owens And Momper Named By Cincy U.

CINCINNATI (AP)— Quarterback Brig Owens and center Jerry Momper have been named honorary co-captains of the 1964 University of Cincinnati football squad, which recorded an 8-2 season in winning the Missouri Valley Conference.

Owens and Momper were named Tuesday night at the annual awards banquet. UC had a policy during the season of naming different captains each game.

Owens and backs Al Nelson and Errol Prisby shared the "most consistent and efficent offense back" award. The three seniors accounted for nearly 70 per cent of UC's ground yardage.

Weirton's Tony Jeter On All-Big 8 Squad

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Tony Jeter of Weirton, W. Va., Wednesday was named to the first team of the Associated Press All-Big Eight football team.

Jeter, a junior at the University of Nebraska, was selected as an offensive end.

Easy Victory For Griffith Over Briton

LONDON (AP) — Welterweight champion Emile Griffith heads for New York today with another easy victory over a Briton, another fat purse and a minor gripe over officiating.

The 26-year-old New Yorker floored Dave Charnley three times in stopping the British lightweight champion in 1:56 of the ninth round of a non-title 10-rounder at Wembley's indoor stadium.

Griffith, a native of the Virgin Islands, completely outclassed his lighter, 29-year-old opponent.

For his efforts — which were booed at times by the crowd of about 8,000 — Griffith collected about $20,000. Only last Sept. 22 he earned $56,000 in the same arena for soundly drubbing Welshman Brian Curvis in a 15-round title defense.

The husky, hard-hitting world champion dropped the left-handed Briton twice in the third round — for a count of eight and a no- count at the bell — and for nine with a holting left hook to the jaw in the ninth round.

When Charnley, bleeding from cuts under both eyes, staggered to his feet after the third knockdown, referee Frank Wilson ended the slaughter.

Griffith had won seven of the eight completed rounds on The Associated Press' scorecard.

Griffith was warned several times for hitting low and butting with his head. Charnley also was warned. The crowd booed every time Griffith was warned.

"I'm going to complain to the British Boxing Board of Control," said Gil Clancy, Griffith's co-manager. "I was so worried that Emile might get disqualified that I told him not to hit Charnley lower than his chin."

"I'm hurt about the booing," said Griffith. "I wanted to please the fans. I got scared to throw punches because everything I did seemed to be wrong in the eyes of the referee."

Houston Colt 45s Are Now The Astros

HOUSTON (AP) — There is no longer such a team as the Houston Colt .45s.

Now they're the Houston Astros.

Club President Roy Hofheinz announced the name change Tuesday night.

"We think it is in keeping with the situation in which we are the space capital of the world," he said. "The name was taken from the stars and indicates we are on the ascendency."

The nation's Manned Spacecraft Center, a training facility for astronauts, is 25 miles from Houston.

Attendance Record Established By AFL

NEW YORK (AP) —The American Football League has set an attendance record of 1,263,186 in 47 games as compared to the old mark of 1,241,741 set in a full 54-game schedule last season.

The two clubs that have completed their home seasons have set new marks. New York drew 298,972 for seven home games, compared to 103,550 last year at the Polo Grounds. Buffalo drew 257,324 to 209,719 in 1963.

After Notre Dame beat Navy, Middie coach Wayne Hardin said: "Notre Dame is probably the best team in the country."

Fight Results

LONDON — Emile Griffith, New York, stopped Dave Charnley, England, 9. Weights unavailable. Non-title.

HOUSTON—Tod Herring, 206, Houston, stopped Roy Rogers, 196, Levelland, Tex., 4.

NEW YORK—Ronnie Geoffrion, 172½, Mineola, N.Y., outpointed George Cahill, New York, 170½, 6.

TACOMA, Wash. — George Wright, 160, Tacoma, stopped Ramon Hernandez, 160, Tacoma, 5.

Branch Meets At Lisbon

County Heart Unit Elects 10 To Board Of Trustees

LISBON—Ten members were elected to the Board of Trustees of the Columbiana County Heart Branch at a meeting Tuesday at the Hotel Wick.

Elected were Dr. Fraser Jackson of East Liverpool, Dr. Peter Cibula, Mrs. Thomas Leggett, Earl Dickey, the Rev. Frederick Schultz and the Rev. William Ring of Lisbon. Mrs. Earl Gruber of Hanoverton, Michael Klembara of West Point, Carl Stacey of Columbiana and Robert Lewis of Salem.

Tony Radich of Boardman, new executive director of the Eastern Ohio Heart Association, spoke.

Dr. Hugh Bennett of Youngstown discussed heart and blood vessel diseases, and a question-and-answer period followed.

A discussion was held on the current stroke rehabilitation program of the group. It was reported there were 223 patients in Columbiana County visited at hospital or home in the past year by the organization.

It was announced the former Youngstown Area Heart Association has now been designated as the Heart Association of Eastern Ohio, serving Columbiana, Mahoning and Trumbull County.

Each county has its own county Heart Branch. The county headquarters is at 43 N. Park St., Lisbon, and the phone is 424-5454. Mrs. Ruth Jenkins is field representative staffing the office, which is open from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m.

Discussion was held on the fund campaign for Columbiana County in February. The county goal is $15,040.

A campaign chairmens' meeting will be held Jan. 19 at a site to be announced.

Movie Roles Rumored For Sen. Keating

WASHINGTON (AP) — Will Sen. Kenneth B. Keating go to Hollywood next year and become a movie actor?

That's one of the jobs rumored for the 64-year-old New York Republican since he was defeated for re-election Nov. 3 by Robert F. Kennedy.

But all the affable silver-haired senator will say is that he has had no direct contact with anyone from Hollywood.

"Of course," he mused with tongue-in-cheek during an interview, "There's a dearth of mature stars in Hollywood now."

He was one of several unpaid senatorial consultants who helped producer Otto Preminger with the movie "Advise and Consent" several years ago.

In addition to a Hollywood job, Keating has also been rumored for baseball commissioner, ambassador to Israel and an unspecified post with the Johnson administration.

He said, however, that no one has ever approached him about the baseball commissioner's job and no one in the administration has contacted him directly or indirectly about a government assignment.

Keating plans to withhold a decision on his plans until next year.

Briefs Due By Jan. 5 In Vindicator Strike

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Briefs must be filed by Jan. 5 by both sides in the Youngstown Vindicator's unfair labor practice case against the striking Local 11 of the American Newspaper Guild.

Trial examiner George Downing set the deadline Tuesday after hearing nearly two dozen witnesses for the newspaper in two days of testimony. He indicated it would be some time after Jan. 5 before he could make a finding in the case. The issue then will go before the National Labor Relations Board. The board's finding is subject to appeal.

The Vindicator charged that during the early days of the strike the Guild conducted mass picketing at the newspaper plant, alleging that there was disturbances on the picket line and that copies of the Sunday Vindicator were confiscated and destroyed.

2 Buildings Okayed

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — A $1,250,000 music building and a $950,000 men's dormitory, slated for completion in 1966, have the approval of Wittenberg University's board of directors. The board okayed plans for the two campus buildings Tuesday and hired an architect for the dormitory to house 200 students.

Guerrillas Wipe Out District Post

Arsenal Of Viet Cong Richer By 113 Weapons

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Viet Cong arsenal was richer today by 113 weapons — including 33 machine guns — which Communist guerrillas captured after wiping out a government district headquarters.

North Viet Nam claimed that 12 U.S. planes strafed and bombed three villages Tuesday in its half of the demilitarized zone between North and South Viet Nam.

The big loss of weapons — enough to arm a reinforced company of guerrillas — was suffered Tuesday at Thien Giao, 100 miles northeast of Saigon. About 300 Communist guerrillas smashed into the town and killed the district chief and 13 of his men. Thirty defenders were wounded, six were missing and two Viet Cong were reported killed.

Responding to a call for help, flare-dropping planes and two companies of ground troops from the coastal town of Phan Thiet headed for Thien Giao.

When the ground troops arrived just before dawn, the Viet Cong had left with their booty.

The North Vietnamese broadcast said Tuesday's bombing was the fourth recent attack on North Vietnamese territory. Radio Hanoi charged that U.S. planes bombed and strafed five villages in the demilitarized zone on Oct. 16 and Oct. 17 and on Nov. 25 "U.S. puppet warships" shelled Co Con Island, off the northern part of the zone.

American military sources in Bangkok said that a search for two U.S. T28 planes which disappeared over Laos Nov. 19 has been called off.

The planes, with four U.S. airmen aboard, were on their way to South Viet Nam from Udorn, an air base in northeast Thailand.

It has not been determined whether they crashed due to mechanical failure or were shot down, the sources said.

Guest Talks To Secretaries On Personnel Management

The problems of managing people were discussed by Miss Anne Guckenberger of Mt. Lebanon, office manager of the U. S. Steel Corp.'s operations-steel department in Pittsburgh, at the Christmas dinner party of the East Liverpool Chapter of the National Secretaries Association Tuesday night at the Travelers Hotel.

She said consideration, more than logic, is more successful in managing office personnel "as people react to feelings and sentiment rather than reasoning." A good mental outlook towards a job can be achieved by learning to accept others as they are and the development of a good disposition can prove to be of a great aid in the formal or informal office atmosphere, she stressed.

Miss Guckenberger used a set of various color scarves to illustrate her point, "color your personality." She distributed a list of rules to live by. In a question - and - answer period, she said ability and personality are equally judged in selecting personnel. She received a gift from the group.

Mrs. Angie Frank, president, extended the welcome followed by the introduction of the members and guests, including Miss Mary Getman of Toledo, Mrs. Evelyn Exley, Mrs. Mary Jane Fone, Mrs. Nancy DeSarro, Mrs. Helen Rauch, Mrs. Freda Wakefield, Mrs. Evalyn Bloor, Mrs. Mary Ann Ferrello, Miss Catherine Franzetta, Mrs. Marilyn Cowan and Mrs. Ann Jonse.

The group read "The Code of Ethics." Tentatvie plans were discussed for a guest tea in February.

Mrs. Evelyn Hartman prepared the Christmas cover bulletins.

The tables were decorated with holiday centerpieces and red and green tapers encircled by maline. Favors were decorative candles. Prayer was given by Mrs. Ruth Pearson.

Mrs. Ruby Coleman and Miss Susan Graff were in charge of the gift exchange.

Mrs. Hartman, general chairman, was assisted by Miss Graff, Mrs. Charlotte Cole and Mrs. Pearson.

The next session will be held Jan. 5 in the Potters Savings & Loan Co. annex.

Kiwanis To Hold Wellsville Party

The Wellsville Kiwanis Club will hold its annual Christmas party next Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. at Piatt's Tea Room.

Ladies Night will be observed and wives of members will be guests.

Gifts will be collected for distribution to children through the Columbiana County Welfare Department.

Special entertainment will be provided. Robert Lowther will be in charge.

Plans for the event were reviewed at a meeting of the club Tuesday noon at Piatt's. Dr. John Fraser of East Liverpool was guest speaker.

He described the common ailments of the human urinary tract.

Staff Changes Made In Weirton Bulletin

WEIRTON — A series of changes on the staff of the Employes Bulletin, publication of the Weirton Steel Co. division of the National Steel Corp., was announced today by E. A. Ross, vice president of industrial relations.

Stephen E. Posti is the new editor of the magazine, succeeding James W. Chandler, who resigned to accept employment in Pittsburgh. Charles R. Cronin of East Liverpool will join the staff Dec. 14 as associate editor.

Posti, a native of Weirton, has been assistant editor since 1961. Cronin has been a reporter with the East Liverpool Review since 1957.

Shipping Battered, Lives Periled

Part Of Maine Paralyzed By Up To 2 Feet Of Snow

PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — The first major snowstorm of the season along the Atlantic Coast has virtually paralyzed parts of Maine with up to two feet of snow. It battered shipping from New Jersey to Nova Scotia and endangered many lives.

The snow Tuesday skipped past most of the coast but struck northern and eastern Maine hard. Driven by winds which somtimes reached 60 miles per hour, the snow piled in drifts up to eight feet in some sections.

The storm brought biting cold on northwest winds which pushed the mercury down to 5 above in northern Maine.

Wintry weather also prevailed across the northern half of the nation from the Rockies to the western slopes of the Appalachians, with snow and cold.

Freezing weather again nipped areas deep into the Southland, with the mercury dropping to 24 in Macon, Ga., and 29 in Tallahassee, Fla., Montgomery, Ala., and Albany, Ga. The below zero belt covered northern Midwest areas with 11 below in Grand Forks, N.D., one of the lowest readings.

At least two deaths, both in Maine, have been attributed to the storm. A 72-year-old Stoddard, Maine, woman died apparently of exhaustion, after struggling through foot-deep drifts. Near Presque Isle, Maine, Elmer K. Stackhouse, a snowplow operator, was found dead as the storm abated.

Hundreds of Maine motorists were stranded Monday night as the swirling snow piled ever deeper on highways. About 100 persons crammed into a service station at Machias. At Presque Isle every hotel, motel or rooming house space was taken by travelers blocked by the storm.

Sections of U.S. 1 were clogged by snow or by traffic jams of up to 50 cars and trucks.

Off Nova Scotia, near Halifax, the 3,800-ton Liberian freighter Fury was driven aground by winds estimated as high as 90 m.p.h. and high waves.

The Fury, with 18 men aboard, was tossed about so vigorously that she lost several lifeboats and both anchors.

Rescue ships struggled through the storm-tossed seas to reach the disabled craft.

Another craft, the fishing vessel, the Friars, out of New Bedford, Mass., was buffeted by the high seas some 90 miles southeast of Nantucket Island, off the Massachusetts coast. A Coast Guard rescue ship reached her side and stood by to help as the Friars struggled toward port.

Snow covers outside Maine ranged up to 18 inches in sections of the Great Lakes and amounts measured nearly a foot in eastern Montana. Snow continued during the night and early morning in much of the Midwest.

Subzero readings were reported in parts of the Dakotas, Minnesota, Montana and Michigan.

Jury Awards $2,175 In Note Payment Suit

LISBON — A Common Pleas Court jury Tuesday afternoon awarded a verdict of $2,175 to Blaine R. Mather in his suit against O. A. Naragon for reimbursement for paying off a note. Both are of Salem.

Mather sued Naragon as guardian of the estate of Ruby E. Mather, also of Salem. The plaintiff claimed he was co-signer of a note by which his late father borrowed from a bank. He said he paid off the note and was given an instrument from Ruby Mather, promising he would be repaid out of the estate. His suit asked $2,997. The jury was seated Monday by Judge Joel H. Sharp, testimony began yesterday morning and the verdict was reached at 1:20.

Cincinnati Hospital To Cost $13.7 Million

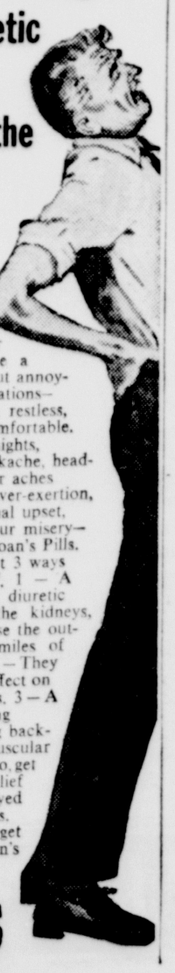

CINCINNATI (AP)—The cost of Cincinnati's new nine-story General Hospital will be $13,749,814, according to the total of low bids submitted Tuesday.

Construction on the 650-bed hospital is expected to take around three years. Frank Meser and Sons Inc. of Cincinnati was the apparent low bidder for the general construction with a bid of $8,046,200.

Plans For Future Are Indefinite

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The veteran leader of Republicans in the Ohio House, Rep. Roger Cloud of De Graff in Logan County, says his future plans are indefinite except to complete his job as speaker in the 1965 session.

Of reports that he may be in line for appointment as state auditor, Cloud said Tuesday: "Well, I haven't given it any thought."

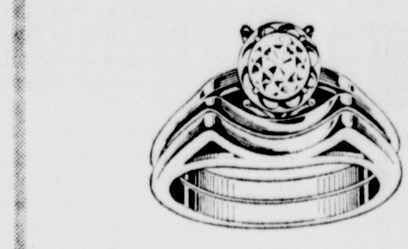

State Auditor Roger W. Tracy died last month. Former Adj. Gen. Chester W. Goble was named to the post, but it is understood he will resign whenever Gov. James A. Rhodes wants to appoint someone who will run in 1966 for a full four-year term as auditor.

Cloud, a successful farmer-contractor, reportedly is high on the list for consideration. He admits that Rhodes mentioned the possibility to him some time ago, and he has indicated previously that this will be his final term in the House.

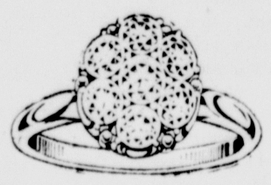

Cloud was re-elected without opposition last month to a ninth term in the House, and later was chose for a fifth term as GOP leader. He again will be House speaker because Republicans have the majority in the 1965 House.

Lisbon Judge Fines 4

LISBON — Four motorists were fined Tuesday by County Judge James L. MacDonald on speeding charges filed by the State Highway Patrol. Penalties of $10 and costs were meted out to Jerry H. Morrow, 39, of Hanoverton, John MacDonald, 29, of Cleveland and Paul E. Laughman, 37, of Akron. Lloyd Mills, 20, of R. D. 3 was fined $5 and costs.

Rebel Republic's Dead

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

But Revolt In Northeast Congo Refuses To Lie Down

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — The rebel "Congolese People's Republic" in Stanleyville is dead, but the revolt in the northeastern Congo refuses to lie down.

Disorganized, its lines of communication shattered by seizure of the rebel capital, its leaders hiding or in flight, the Communist-backed insurrection is being driven into the dark rain forests and impenetrable bush.

Premier Moise Tshombe's tough mercenary fighters from South Africa, Rhodesia and Belgium go in shooting when they capture towns and rescue white hostages, but the rebels close in behind them as their armed columns roll out.

For the South African mercenary commander, Maj. Michael Hoare, the difficulty of getting to grips with his enemy raises the prospects of a long, dirty war.

"A military solution is not enough. There must be some sort of political solution as well," says the 46-year-old Dublin-born veteran of war behind the Japanese lines in Burma and in Tshombe's secessionist Katanga.

Some foreign military observers believe it will be months, possibly years, before it is safe to travel through the rebel area without a strong military escort.

Hoare's mercenaries move in trucks bristling with guns. Every tiny hamlet, every crossroads and every clump of bushes where ambushers could lurk is sprayed with machine-gun bullets.

Rarely do the mercenaries see anyone as they drive by. I counted only six humans and two goats while traveling an entire day through rebel territory with Hoare's men. Four were old, decrepit men and two were women.

But the mercenaries often find food still bubbling in pots.

Hoare's biggest problem is to consolidate his winnings. He has too few men to spread them around to hold captured towns.

Big centers can be held, but they may have to be supplied from the air.

At the moment, all evidence points to a complete lack of rebel central organization. Their radio network fell apart when the main transmitter at Stanleyville fell into government hands.

The rebels are negotiating with the new government in neighboring Sudan for military aid and permission to use the country as a base. Western diplomats in Khartoum, the Sudan's capital, said they believed there were strong chances the Sudanese government would help them.

Reports received in Khartoum said a number of wounded rebels are being treated in southern Sudan hospitals. But Sudanese officials deny that rebel President Christophe Gbenye and his key lieutenants have crossed into the Sudan.

District Pilot Uninjured In Crash Of Jet

EAST PALESTINE — A 24-year-old city Navy pilot was nursing a few bruises today at Virginia Beach following his ejection from a disabled jet along the Atlantic Coast and his rescue from a swamp by a helicopter Tuesday.

Lt. Jg. Errol J. Quinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Quinn, 831 W. Main St., was flying a Navy Skyhawk jet attack plane in formation with other jets over Pamlico Sound, 18 miles east of Cherry Point, N. C., when the motor trouble developed during a target practice run.

Lt. Quinn ejected from the craft after alerting his wing man, and parachuted into a swamp area from which he was rescued within five minutes by a helicopter. His plane crashed.

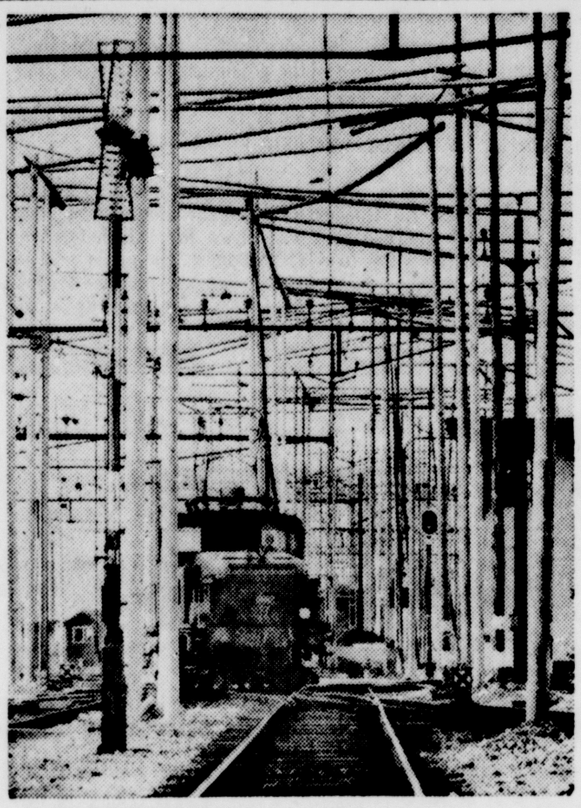

In a telephone conversation with his parents last night, he said he was uninjured except for a few bruises.

A graduate of East Palestine High School, he entered the Navy cadet program after graduation, and has served three years. He recently returned from duty in Spain.

He and his wife reside at Virginia Beach.

Mayors Plan Meeting

LISBON — The Columbiana County Mayor's Association will meet Thursday at 6:30 p.m. at East Palestine City Hall. The group will have dinner at an East Palestine restaurant and then visit the municipal electric, water and sewage plants. Mayor Ralph Kennedy of Leetonia is president.

POLE PROTECTION. This train may seem to have trouble maneuvering through the wooden poles at Muttenz, Switzerland, but the poles are really safety precautions.

Christmas Program Held By Lisbon Coterie Members

Henry VanDyke's "Keeping the Christmas Season" was read by Mrs. Byron Albright, president, to open the meeting of the Lisbon Coterie Monday night at the home of Mrs. Guy Frantz of W. Lincoln Way.

The home was decorated in the holiday setting, including a lighted decorated spruce on the lawn. The recording, "Put Christ Back Into Christmas," was played.

"Quiet, Yelled Mrs. Rabbit", (Espy) was the humorous story reviewed by Mrs. Frank Henry, who was introduced by Miss Lois Armstrong, program chairman.

The group will attend the combined clubs' Christmas dinner party at the Methodist Church Dec. 11.

The Christmas meeting will be held Dec. 21 at the home of Mrs. J. J. Bennett of N. Market St. Each member is to take canned goods for the Christmas basket the group will pack for a needy family.

The Monday Bridge Club was entertained in the evening at the home of Mrs. Ralph Rogers of E. Chestnut St.

A Christmas dinner party at the Wick Hotel Monday, will be followed by a gift exchange and social time at the home of Mrs. Frank Steele of Vine St.

Victory Club members were guests of Mrs. John Chillik of the Salem - Lisbon Rd. Monday evening.

Prizes for 500 were awarded Mrs. James Babb and Mrs. Victor Williams.

Pvt. John Hofer has been discharged from the Army Reserve and has returned home. He served the past six months at Ft. Knox, Ky., and Ft. Jackson, S. C. Mr. and Mrs. Hofer, the former Miss Shirley Taylor of Lisbon, are residing in Salem.

Taft Decides He Won't Ask Vote Recount

CINCINNATI (AP) — Robert Taft Jr. has decided against a vote recount of the Nov. 3 election in which he lost a bid for the U.S. Senate seat once held by his father, the late Sen. Robert A. Taft.

Republican Taft, now completing his first term as Ohio's congressman-at-large, lost the election by 16,827 votes to Sen. Stephen M. Young, a Democrat elected to his second Senate term.

Taft, who had maintained silence, said Tuesday night that although the official canvass "confirms that it was very close, on the basis of careful study of each county, my campaign organization and I are convinced that a recount would not change the ultimate outcome."

The 47-year-old Cincinnatian said he had "no definite personal plans" for the future, but that he expects to "continue an active interest in public affairs."

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown released the official canvass Tuesday and it showed Young won by 50.2 per cent. Young got 1,923,608 votes to Taft's 1,906,781, the canvass showed.

Many polls and others had perdicted a victory for Taft over the 74-year-old Young.

Taft said he sent a telegram to Sen. Young "congratulating him on his victory and wishing him well in his Senate term."

"Since the results show that I ran more than a million votes ahead of the national ticket, I am gratified even though it was a loss, and I want to thank all who worked so hard in support of my candidacy," Taft said.

"While many factors affected the result, it is particularly noteworthy that the total vote in Ohio decreased by about 175,000 from 1960 in spite of a sizeable increase in eligible voters," he added. "This means once more that too many voters stayed home, especially those who might have voted for Republican candidates at all levels."

Johnson Received 62.9% Of Ohio Votes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson ran about 10 per cent ahead of his party in Ohio, the official canvass of the Nov. 3 election showed Tuesday.

The final count gave Johnson 2,498,331 votes to 1,470,865 for his Republican opponent, Arizona Sen. Barry M. Goldwater. Johnson polled 62.9 per cent of the votes.

The official canvass, by Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, showed a total of 4,034,494 Ohioans voted. The state record of 4,208,811 was set in the 1960 election.

FBI Probes Reports Of Air Base Shooting

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — The FBI is investigating reports that several planes at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base have been struck recently by bullets from a high-powered rifle.

The base spokesman said at least one of the planes hit was a Strategic Air Command B52 jet bomber. He said the planes were hit in the vicinity of the base but the shootings were not noticed until the bullet holes were discovered after the planes landed.

Ohio Patrol Lists 102 November Accidents

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon investigated 102 traffic accidents during November and made 391 arrests, according to a monthly report from Sgt. Ralph Rizzo.

There were 31 injury accidents in which 42 were hurt, and a fatal crash which took one life. Officers issued 176 written warnings and gave assistance to 33 motorists.

Camp Fire Girls Plan Ceremonial

A Christmas ceremonial will be conducted by the East Liverpool Area Camp Fire Girls at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the Memorial Auditorium.

The Camp Fire Girls unit of the group has made decorations for a live Christmas tree that will be displayed that night then presented to the children's wing of City Hospital.

Mayor Merrill Hall will accept a service project box on behalf of the city. A box of toys will be presented to the Welfare Department.

There will be group caroling, accompanied by members of the high school band.

The public is invited. Refreshmenst will be served.

At Meeting In Pittsburgh

Former Coach To Speak For Potters' Association

Aurance F. Shank, former high school and college football coach, will speak at a banquet Tuesday night in Pittsburgh highlighting the opening session of the 86th annual meeting of the U.S. Potters Association.

Shank will speak for the affair at the Pittsburgh Hilton Hotel, where the dinnerware manufacturers' group will open its two-day session Tuesday morning.

A native of Kansas, he was a noted college athlete and went on to coach football at a high school in Asheville, N. C., and at the Shippensburg (Pa.) State Teachers' College.

The first day's session will be marked by committee reports, reviewing developments in the industry in 1964 and looking ahead to 1965.

An executive session will highlight the second day, concluding with the report of a nominating committee and the election of officers.

J. Ross Buchanan of the Mayer China Co. at Beaver Falls is the incumbent president. He was named to a full term at the annual meeting in December 1963.

Buchanan has headed the association since August 1963, when he was elevated from the first vice presidency because of the death of W. V. Oliver, president of the French-Saxon China Co. at Sebring.

Fred C. Henderson of the Royal China Co. at Sebring is first vice president; Robert M. Wells of the Homer Laughlin China Co. is second vice president and Tom Campbell of Poland, Ohio, is associate vice president.

The third vice presidency is vacant because of the recent death of Everson Hall of the Hall China Co.

The slate of officers for 1965 will be presented by a nominating committee headed by Arthur A. Wells of Homer Laughlin.

To Give Them Love They Need

Salvation Army Family Takes In Four Orphans

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — A Salvation Army family of four, living on $60 a week, has taken four orphaned children into their home.

"We want to be able to give them the love they need and want," said Capt. Bill McFarland.

"Anyone would have done the same thing. It's something you don't have to think about. You just know what to do."

McFarland and his wife took the children after they found the youngsters' 71-year-old father, a retired laborer, dead on Thanksgiving Day.

"They didn't know who to call, so they called me," McFarland said.

"I was their pastor. They had relatives here but they didn't know how to get in touch with them right away."

McFarland refused to name the children and would not allow them to be photographed. He would say only that the two boys were 11 and 14 years old and the girls were 15 and 16.

Mrs. McFarland said their own children, a girl, 7, and a boy, 3, loved having the four.

Asked how she felt about suddenly doubling the size of her family, Mrs. McFarland replied, "I'm used to it. I was raised in a large family."

The McFarlands live in a three-bedroom house provided by the Salvation Army. McFarland, 30, nas charge of all the army's activities here.

Asks Cut In Rates

CLEVELAND(AP) — Mayor Ralph Locher has asked the Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co. to cut its rates by $3.6 million and thus lower the home cost for the utility's 500,000 consumers in northeast Ohio. Locher said Tuesday the cut was necessary because CEI should pass on to consumers the company's gains from federal income tax cuts.

Ex-Teamster Boss Due For Parole Dec. 1

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dave Beck, onetime Teamsters Union head who has served nearly half of a five-year prison sentence for income tax fraud, will be freed on parole on Dec. 11 from the U.S. penitentiary on McNeil Island near Tacoma, Wash.

Parole was granted Beck Tuesday.

Beck, now 70, was fined $20,000 in addition to his jail sentence in Tacoma, Wash., on Feb. 27, 1959, on charges of filing fraudulent tax returns for the union's Joint Council Building Association in Seattle, Wash.

He began serving the sentence June 20, 1962, after he lost his appeals fight.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A State Department spokesman said Tuesday that the United States is not trying to get other African nations to come to the aid of the central Congo government in its fight against Congolese rebels.

Press officer Marshall Wright, asked about a New York Times story that the Johnson administration thinks troops from other African nations are needed desperately to restore stability, said:

"I am aware of no current diplomatic efforts directed to this end."

The Rochester Americans posted the best home record in the American Hockey League last season. They won 27 games and played one tie. They lost 8 games.

Hall To Fill Vacancies

Terms Will Close Dec. 31 For 5 In City Board Posts

The terms of five members of unsalaried municipal boards and commissions are scheduled to expire at midnight Dec. 31. The vacancies will be subject to appointments by Mayor Merrill D. Hall.

The expiring terms are held by:

C. Frank Dales, on the Board of Health.

W. Leland Thompson, on the Board of Thompson Park Commissioners.

Miss Sara Heddleston, Arthur T. Thomas and Mrs. Chleo Deshler Goodman, all on the Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Public Library.

No tenures will run out at the end of the year on two other boards — the Civil Service Commission and the Board of Public Utilities, which administers the water and sewage departments.

Expiration dates of the terms on the city boards are staggered so that a few run out at the end of each year. For instance, six ended as 1961 closed, two ended on Dec. 31, 1962, and five ran out at the end of 1963.

Hold-over members of the Board of Health are Dr. J. Keith Rugh, chairman, whose term runs through 1965; Mrs. Ila Finney Johnston, 1966; Dr. C. M. Mayberry, 1967, and Paul Zehnder, 1968. Terms are for five years. Howard Claypool is clerk, elected by the board.

Continuing as members of the Park Board are: Probate Judge Louis Tobin, president, 1965; Atty. William H. Vodrey Jr., 1966, and Louis Yanni, 1967. Thompson is the board's secretary.

Hold-over members of the Library Board are Atty. Robert A. Kapp, who is president; James J. McGowan, treasurer, and Mrs. Joyce Seevers, secretary. Their terms all run through the end of 1965. Terms are for four years.

Continuing as members of the Civil Service Commission are Donal I. Burcham, chairman, 1967; Angelo Fiorello, 1965, and H. A. Tullis, 1969. Terms are for six years. P. K. Calhoon is clerk, elected by the commission.

Members of the Board of Public Utilities are: W. O. Schneider, chairman, whose term runs until July 1, 1970; Howard Moore, July 1, 1966, and F. J. Cloran, July 1, 1968.

The first all-America football team in 1889 had five players from Princeton, three from Harvard and three from Yale.

Hearings Due Tuesday For Cited Drivers

Acting Municipal Judge Paul Tobin today set hearings Tuesday morning at 9 for two motorists facing three charges as a result of a crash Monday night at 11:55 on the East Liverpool-Wellsville "super-road."

Harold L. Wright, 20, of 2307 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, is charged with operating an unsafe vehicle and failure to affix his signature to his driver's license.

James R. McDevitt, 43, of 613 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, is charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Both were cited by the State Highway Patrol, which reported Wright stopped on the highway about two - tenths of a mile east of Wellsville because his car was overheated. Then Wright's auto was hit from the rear by McDevitt's, the patrol said.

On the charge of operating an unsafe vehicle, the patrol alleged that Wright's car had one headlight that was not functioning, no tail lights, no license plate light and no emergency brake and all four tires were bald.

Wright, represented by Atty. Donald Smith, entered a not guilty plea before the acting judge this morning.

McDevitt entered a "no contest" plea. The acting jurist withheld a decision in McDevitt's case pending the outcome of the charges against Wright.

Wright's trial was continued to arrange the appearance of the arresting officer, Patrolman W. C. Muckleroy. Both men were released on their own recognizance.

Promise Of Large Deposit Described In Fraud Trial

CLEVELAND (AP)—One of the methods used by Andrew D. Adams to gain the confidence of an Akron bank to cash his checks was the promise of a $2 million deposit from a Haitian revolutionary government when it gained control, according to a former executive of the bank.

Eugene E. Fish, former manager of the Bowery branch of the Dime Bank of Akron, who now lives in Las Vegas, Nev., testified against Adams Tuesday in U. S. district court.

Adams, 50, of Akron, is on trial on charges of defrauding the Akron bank of $124,319 through check kiting. It has been testified that an account Adams established at the Bank of Albion in Albion, Mich., was used in the juggling of checks over an 18-month period ending in April, 1962.

Fish testified that he was asked to resign when Adams' bouncing checks had grown to huge proportions.

He said he had known Adams for 10 years when Adams came to him in July, 1960, and showed him his resignation with the U. S. Department of Justice as a foreign agent for Parti Nationale, a revolutionary group that was organized in Haiti when Francis Duvalier became dictator there.

Fish said Adams told him funds were being sought for the purchase of mineral, shipping and other rights in Haiti and that money was being brought from Kansas City for deposit in the Albion bank. Money from checks cashed at the Bowery branch was to go to Cleveland, Washington, New York and other cities for promotion of the revolutionary movement, Fish said he was told by Adams.

Motorist Drops Row Of Stitches -Just Mentally

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP) — Clive Manley dropped a whole row of stitches — mentally, that is — when he returned to his parked car.

Someone had stolen his knitting needles, three sweaters and a pattern book from the unlocked vehicle, he told police Tuesday.

The sweaters were going to be a Christmas present "for my old gray-haired mother," Manley said sadly. "There's nothing to do but to start all over again. But I sure will miss that old pattern book. It can't be replaced."

Manley learned to knit more than 20 years ago, while a World War II prisoner of the Japanese. He weathered the ridicule of his fellow Navy officers and he never gave up his hobby.

Man In Bungled Safe Job Puts Finger On Self

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Calif. (AP) — David Pehrson, who literally put the finger on himself, is in police custody today.

"I'm wanted in Minnesota," Pehrson, 31, told the desk sergeant Tuesday, holding up a bandaged left hand.

Officers said Pehrson explained that he bungled a safe burglary last Nov. 13 in Hopkins, Minn. He said the safe he was trying to move slipped off a dolly and severed the second finger.

While he waited in Orange County jail, police said, confirmation came from Hopkins sheriff's deputies. Yes, a burglary warrant had been issued: detectives had found the finger at the scene and had taken Pehrson's print from it.

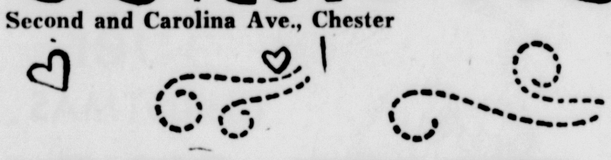

2 In Arson Returned To State Institution

Two 26 - year - old Wellsville men have been returned to the Gallipolis State Hospital for mentally retarded after admitting arson in an apartment house in Wellsville Nov. 12.

James Moore, 403½ Main St., and Ed Cline, 605 Wood St. confessed to setting the fire at the apartment at 319 Broadway. The blaze caused $2,300 damage and was the third case of arson at the apartment.

Cline also admitted setting two other fires, one at the same location and a grass fire. As the two already were wards of the state, no formal charges of arson were filed.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

TV And The Children's Programs

Everybody from J. Edgar Hoover to Ed Sullivan has condemned TV for not putting better children's programs on the air. The Senate Juvenile Delinquency subcommittee's recent TV report even has called for all three networks to put juvenile cultural and educational programs on prime time at staggered time during the week. No more is likely to come of this than resulted from former FCC Chairman Newton Minow's plea for better kids' shows a few years ago.

Hal Humphrey

CYRIL W. PLATTES, vice president and director of marketing for General Mills, Inc., can tell you why. His firm has participating sponsorship of four kids' shows besides such nighttime fare as "The Patty Duke Show," "Mr. Ed," "Johnny Quest" and "The Munsters."

"We at General Mills do care about educating children, but at the same time we have to compete with the other shows. I believe the networks made a solid effort to go along with Minow, and they put on some fine shows, but they couldn't get a rating with them," says Plattes.

General Mills has a show going into its second season now which Plattes believes embodies the happy solution of entertaining and informing the child at the same time. It is a cartoon series called "Tennessee Tuxedo" on CBS-TV Saturday mornings.

THE TITLE ROLE is played by an adventuresome penguin who before the half hour is over is told how a telescope works, how to dig for gold or why gushers gush. These tidbits of knowledge are about as prominent as a raisin in a big piece of cake. It goes down when you swallow the cake, but you hardly notice it.

Plattes insists that General Mills feels a responsibility to its kid audiences beyond entertaining them for the sake of selling cereal. Of course, as he also points out, if the latter weren't accomplished, there would be no General Mills-sponsored shows.

Networks also claim they are not calloused to their responsibility for adding to our kids' cultural enrichment. They can list an imposing number of educational shows that have been beamed over the past dozen years. Unfortunately, compared to the total number of programs, this list is also the size of a raisin.

BOTH PLATTES and the networks say the greatest failure is not theirs, but must be put on parents, enough of whom do not guide their kids into watching the better things.

"I can't blame a mother for using TV as a baby sitter. She has all kinds of problems to face every day. But if a program is not watched it can't survive, can it?" asks Plattes.

And the networks will tell Sen. Dodd and his juvenile delinquency committee they cannot afford to put children's shows on a prime-time evening hour. A low-rated show early in the prime time, say the networks, wipes out the whole evening. The old "Firestone Hour" ultimately was booted off by all three networks through this reasoning.

AS LONG as blame for this failure is being passed around, some of it must go to the creators of kids' shows. Most of them get too patronizing and forget that the young audiences they are aiming at are more sophisticated than most adults realize.

"Children are not children so long any more, and we do not always allow for this," observes cereal seller Plattes.

He knows, because not only do kids quit eating cereal at younger age today, they also quit swallowing dull lectures on things they already know from having watched "Popeye the Sailor Man."

A Fight For Souls

Methodists, Reds Wage Quiet Battle In Algeria

LES OUADHIAS, Algeria (AP) — The Methodist Church and the Soviet Communist party are waging a quiet battle for souls in this little upland village in central Algeria.

The Russians have arrived in numbers, assisted by groups from satellite countries. Matched against them are the Rev. John Paolini, from Cranbury, N.J., and his wife, Marilyn. He has been a Methodist minister for 10 years, four of them in Algeria and the past 14 months in this village.

The Russians have started building a village for Algerians not far from here. The job started with considerable fanfare six months ago but has slowed down. Young Russians, Yugoslavs, Czechs, Bulgarians and Algerians are living in tents near a wooden headquarters which displays pictures of Alexei N. Kosygin, new premier of the Soviet Union, and Todor Zhivkov, premier of Bulgaria.

Young men come from the Soviet Union and satellites to work two to four months constructing the village. The aim is to build a model farm village with tile and brick apartment houses instead of the rock houses usual in this part of the country. They are running a small school, teaching French to Algerian teen-agers who didn't write any language at all.

Signs in the headquarters urge everybody to work for communism and against corruption, capitalism and dishonesty. One of Algerian President Ahmed Ben Bella's slogans urges Algerians to be ready to die for the country.

Paolini has his home a short distance away, in the village. Russians have called on him and he has visited the Soviet camp but they don't see much of one another. He runs a library where he teaches French and English to Algerians. His wife teaches a kindergarten and primary class. In a little church he preaches in French and a translator converts it into Kabylie since this is Kabylie country — an old center of resistance against the French.

"I tell them stories from the Bible," he said. "They like the stories where the good people triumph over the bad."

Many of those Bible stories also are in the Koran, and they sound familiar to some of the 150 or so villagers who crowd into the church on Sunday.

Young people come to his library located conveniently in a main street of the village. It is far better stocked than the library in the Soviet camp, but he would like more illustrated American magazines.

The Soviet camp will contain a small hospital. The Methodists have been running a hospital at Zeouin also in the Kabylie country for more than 20 years.

The Russians are expected to bring in machinery to show the villagers modern farming. That will make an impression, but so far the pastor is doing all right.

Arrests Due In Slaying

Hoover Tells Dr. King FBI Has Infiltrated KKK

WASHINGTON (AP) — J. Edgar Hoover told Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Tuesday that the FBI has infiltrated the Ku Klux Klan and other racist groups much as it did the Communist party, it was learned after the two had chatted in the FBI director's office.

And, King told reporters after the 1¼-hour session, Hoover indicated arrests will be made in the next few days in the slaying of three civil rights workers near Philadelphia, Miss.

King requested the meeting and Hoover agreed to it. There was no comment from the FBI director afterward, but King, a leader in the Negroes' drive for equal opportunities and rights, told newsmen: "I might say the discussion was quite amicable."

Last month, Hoover departed from his general practice of not granting interviews and told a group of women reporters King was "the most notorious liar in this country."

King, a minister and a winner of the Nobel Peace Prize, had claimed FBI agents in Georgia, because they were Southerners, did not investigate complaints from Negroes.

Later, the Negro leader said Hoover "has apparently faltered under the awesome burden, complexities and responsibilities of his office."

Hoover's disclosure of FBI infiltration into racist organizations is the first to this effect. His comment that arrests in the Philadelphia slayings will be made in the next few days follows an FBI announcement of last week that "we know who is responsible."

Last Aug. 4, FBI agents found the bodies of the three rights workers — Michael H. Schwerner, 24, Andrew Goodman, 20, and James E. Chaney, 21 — in a recently built earth dam five miles southwest of the Mississippi city. They had disappeared June 21.

Last week an FBI spokesman said "it has not yet been possible to obtain evidence or confessions that would insure successful prosecution." Tuesday spokesmen for the FBI refused to pinpoint the day the arrests Hoover spoke of would be made.

Otherwise, it was learned that in the talk between Hoover and King:

—King expressed appreciation to Hoover for what the FBI has accomplished in the South and said it had overcome many obstacles.

—King said the very presence of the FBI in the South helps deter further civil rights violations and that he is urging his followers to work closely with the FBI.

Faces Return To Madrid

Peron Stopped In Brazil En Route To Argentina

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Ex-dictator Juan D. Peron arrived in Rio de Janeiro today on the first stage of his return to Argentina, but the Brazilian government refused to let him continue his journey.

"He will not go on" to Montevideo, said Joao Lampreia Gracie, chief of protocol for the Brazilian Foreign Ministry who was at the airport to meet the Iberia airliner that brought the former dictator from Madrid.

Lampreia said Peron would be returned to Madrid.

Peron had planned to fly to Montevideo, the Uruguayan capital, and transfer there to a plane for Asuncion, Paraguay. He was to take up residence in Paraguay until he felt the time ripe for him to return to Argentina.

Lampreia said Peron is persona non grata in Brazil and as such was not permitted to touch Brazilian territory. Since he had violated this, Lampreia said, he would be returned to his point of origin.

Spanish officials had indicated earlier, however, that Peron might not be allowed to return to Spain if his trip failed. They said this would be decided by the Spanish government in agreement with the Argentine government.

"But this (Peron's return to Spain) would be very difficult," one official said, "because he has openly broke the conditions under which he came to Spain."

A major condition of Peron's asylum in Spain was that he would not engage publicly in politics.

In Buenos Aires, Argentina's defense minister said the Argentine armed forces would bar any attempt to restore Peron —driven from his homeland in 1955—to power.

President Arturo Illia was awakened during the night for an urgent meeting with Defense Minister Leopoldo Suarez, Interior Minister Juan Palmero and top army and navy officers.

"The armed forces," said Suarez, "without doubt are going to act if necessary to support the government in defense of the peace of our country."

Inspector General Roberto G. Schuller of the federal police placed infantry, mounted police and squad cars on street patrol in Buenos Aires.

Peron and his lieutenants presumably have their eyes on the election March 14 for half the Congress and provincial governors. Peron's followers, although divided, can muster an estimated 20-25 per cent of the vote.

School Head's Lost And So Are Scouts

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—School Supt. Raymond Perez of Springboro gave new Interstate 71, a whirl coming back from Cincinnati Tuesday. He wanted to see the state's tallest bridge at Oregonia.

Perez crossed the bridge, then turned off on the Wilmington Pike Interchange and took a country road he thought led back to Springboro.

It didn't. He was lost.

But he spotted a troop of Boy Scouts marching in the opposite direction and figured he was saved.

"I'm lost boys," he told them. "I don't know where I am."

Their reply: "Sorry, sir, we're lost too."

Beatles' Drummer Has Tonsils Removed

LONDON (AP) — Ringo Starr, the Beatles' drummer, had his tonsils removed today. A hospital spokesman said his condition was satisfactory.

Hundreds of fans of the 24-year-old mophead telephoned a special number — Covent Garden 2332 — for news of their favorite. The recorded voice of Anne Collingham, an employe of the Beatles' manager, told them the good news.

Ringo expects to be in the hospital about 10 days.

"One thing is certain," he said. "Nobody is getting my tonsils as a souvenir. Believe me, I'm going to have them burned."

Lisbon Offers Free Parking To Shoppers

LISBON — Shoppers will be permitted free parking in the village until after Christmas, Mayor Dean Stockman said today.

The heads of all meters have been covered with paper sacks to make it clear that fees are not required. The mayor said he hopes persons employed in stores will not take advantage of the free parking, leaving additional spaces open for customers.

Stores will operate each weekday from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. through Dec. 23. The stores will close at 6 Christmas Eve and remain closed until Monday, Dec. 28.

Ohio Expert Says U.S. May Enter Recession

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Dr. George W. James, an Ohio economist, predicts the United States may enter a recession next year and possibly a depression within a decade because some built-in stabilizers of the U.S. economy may be obsolete in several years.

James, director of socio-economic research at Battelle Memorial Institute at Columbus, made the prediction at a college business symposium sponsored by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Tuesday.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Three veteran Ohio trial judges will be honored Friday by the Ohio Common Pleas Judges Association.

Named Tuesday to receive the Gold Gavel Award of the association were Judge. W. S. Slocum of Lake County, Judge Clifford L. Belt of Belmont County and Judge Benjmain Nicola of Cuyahoga County. The awards will be given at an association luncheon here.

Hancock

deputies are paid $100 a month for extra duties in directing traffic during opening and closing hours at Waterford Park.

—:—

A MOTION to cut their pay by $100 a month, saving the county $1,400 in December, Evans said, was approved by 2-1 vote. Graham dissented, adding he favors the plan because of the inconveniences posed by traffic snarls to residents of Chester, Newell and New Cumberland when there are no deputies on duty during peak race track traffic hours.

Graham said commissioners last year approved the extra $100 a month for deputies for traffic control duty because Waterford Park agreed to pay $1,000 monthly into the County Children's Home Fund.

Graham pointed to complaints of North Hancock residents on traffic jams, blocking trips by emergency vehicles, to declare the traffic control duties are warranted.

"THE ADDED pay was a deliberate attempt to deceive the county taxpayers," Evans charged. "The added money in the Children's Home fund does not help pay for overdrawals in the sheriff's fund unless we transfer the money. I don't intend to be charged with taking money from the kids to pay the deputies."

Graham replied the extra money for the deputies was approved by the state attorney general's office and the state tax commissioner. County Court, he said, was faced with law suits from residents in North Hancock whose driveways had been blocked by race track traffic.

STATE LAW prohibits deputies from accepting donations and salaries outside of the county, so the extra $100 a month they receive is donated to the Children's Home Fund, and transferred, if needed, to the sheriff's fund, Graham explained.

He said the county could save on next year's budget as the more funds that remain in the Children's Home Fund, the less the County Court will have to allot out of next year's tax receipts.

"I don't believe in the principle of the deal," Evans said. "The county has paid $6,500 in extra pay to the deputies in five months, accounting for large portions of the overdrawal." Finley commented that "the new sheriff (Joe Rodak) will go into office with an $8,000 deficit."

WITH THE cutbacks, deputies will receive $520 monthly instead of $620. A notice was posted on the bulletin board at the sheriff's office today concerning the cutbacks, and explaining Graham's position that traffic jams will result without deputies posted at intersections during rush hours to the race track.

Evans introduced a measure calling for dismissal of Karen Staley of Newell and Jean Ann Gibson of New Cumberland, employes in the assessor's office at salaries of $200 monthly. The vote was 2-0, with Graham not taking part.

Graham said the overdrawal in the assessor's office can be made up from the contingency fund and $1,353 remaining in Anderson's mileage expense account.

FINLEY introduced the measure to impound the county station wagon used by Graham, stipulating it is to be used in the future "only on county business." Evans said expenses of the vehicle have ranged from $170 to $200 a month. He said bills have been received for two tankfuls of gasoline in one day, and one time last summer for two sets of tires in the space of three months.

Graham replied, "This is no surprise, I've been expecting it for some time. If anyone is entitled to a car or expenses, it is me. I have to run back and forth from home to County Court on daily business, sometimes several times a day."

"That does not justify the use of the car for your job at Waterford Park and other personal things," Evans declared.

The vote was also 2-0 for approval of a measure that drivers of county vehicles be required to sign receipts for any gasoline or supplies and also list the license numbers and mileage on the sales receipts. Evans charged there is "gross waste" of gasoline and supplies on "rolling stock."

Students From 4 To 40 Attend Unusual School

ROSEMEAD, Calif. (AP) — Students from 4 to 40 attend the unusual school founded by Mary and Lester Stewart.

One of the basic courses is learning how to read. They also get lots of advice, a good bit of philosophy and considerable personal attention.

The name of the school, housed in an 11-by-60-foot store building, is unusual, too. It's called "Dropouts Anonymous."

Dropouts Anonymous has processed nearly 1,000 persons. Some have gone on to barber or beauty colleges and some are being trained by Los Angeles County as landscape architects.

Some aren't dropouts at all. They are children who need special help.

"We tell our students you should like your job better than eating," says Mrs. Stewart. "Because if you don't eat — if you diet — you probably won't get sick. But working at a job you don't like can make you desperately ill."

In 1939 Mrs. Stewart, now 43, left high school in her senior year. It was strictly a matter of money — the lack of it.

Since then she has undergone an intensive program of self-education. A housewife, she is the mother of three sons who have completed high school.

Although their own children had no trouble staying in school, she and her husband, a machinist, became interested in the children of friends who did have trouble. So two years ago they founded Dropouts Anonymous.

The Stewarts don't honor education for education's sake alone.

"Education is learning, not just getting a diploma," says Mrs. Stewart, adding: "And education doesn't mean a thing if you haven't got something in the noodle to back it up."

Approximately 60 per cent of her students needed help with their reading skill when they entered the tuition-free school.

Classes are held five nights a week from 7 to 10 p.m. Each Friday evening is what Mrs. Stewart calls "true confession night."

"We discuss our goals and ambitions," says Mrs. Stewart. "We toss in an idea and see what happens."

Three adults regularly help the Stewarts with the program, including actress Ruth Warrick. The others are Cal Edinger and Doris Patterson.

Financial help comes from individuals and from women's clubs.

Scouts Given Merit Badges

Eight members of Boy Scout Troop 19 of Wellsville, sponsored by the Men's Bible Class of the First Methodist Church, received merit badges at the annual Court of Honor Monday night in the church.

Bill Bratt, assistant scoutmaster, and the Rev. Arden Beck, pastor, presented the awards to Bobby Bratt, Tom DeLauder, Eric Bush, Jimmie Clark, David Tarnovich, Sterling Hanselman, Tommy Davidson and Bruce Glover.

Jack Glover, scoutmaster, introduced his assistant scoutmaster and the boys who introduced their parents. Glover also introduced Richard Payne, neighborhood commissioner, who presented the charter and registration cards to the boys and gave a talk on scouting.

Prizes at games arranged by troop members went to Andy Bush, Denise Clark, Mrs. Sam Coles, Mike Ferry and Bert Clark. Lunch was served by William Bratt, James and Bert Clark, Tommy Davidson and David Tarnovich. Rev. Beck asked the blessing.

IN THE CHIPS. The old expression, "in the chips," has a literal meaning here. Barry and Vicki Blake of Jacksonville, Fla., gambol in huge piles of wood chips collected by a nearby paper company.

Probation Asked In Shooting Case

LISBON — A probation investigation has been ordered by Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard for Walter Richard Beatty, 18, of Apples Corners, who pleaded guilty Tuesday of shooting with intent to kill or wound Ira Baird of Youngstown July 25.

In ordering the investigation, Judge Buzzard told Beatty and his counsel that this doesn't mean he will be given probation and Prosecutor G. William Brokaw said he would not disapprove the investigation but would argue against probation.

The youth wounded the 30-year-old Youngstown resident while they were crossing an orchard of Route 267 a short distance south of Apples Corners. Beatty and Baird worked at the National Rubber Machine Co. in Columbiana and were discussing a car transaction when Beatty shot Baird in the back of the head with a pistol while en route to Beatty's grandmother to have her sign for the car.

Baird was released from the hospital but is partially paralyzed, authorities said.

Former Ohioan Dies

FREDERICK, Md. (AP) — Services will be held Friday for Dr. Dudley Peters Glick, 59, a native of Asheville, Ohio, and technical director and chief of the special operations division at the U.S. Army's Ft. Detrick here. Dr. Glick died Tuesday.

Ohio Writer Elected

HOUSTON (AP) — The president of the National Association of Baseball Writers for the next two years will be Tom Keys of the Columbus (Ohio) Citizen-Journal. Keys was elected Tuesday to succeed Earl Keller of the San Diego Evening Tribune.

The American Power Boat Association sanctioned 502 regattas during 1964 as compared to 475 the previous year.

Crash Survivor Serious; Funeral Of Brother Set

James Plance of Chicago, former Midland area resident, was reported in "serious" condition today at a Chicago hospital with injuries suffered in a truck-car crash which killed his brother, David Plance, Tuesday.

Services will be held Thursday for David Plance, 29, who with his brother, had been working in the Chicago area.

Police said the car driven by David Plance passed a stop sign and went into an intersection where it was struck by a 3-ton flatbed truck driven by Thomas Webber of Chicago.

David Plance was hurled from the car to the pavement when it was spun around by the impact. The truck veered over three lawns and came to rest against the concrete steps of a home.

Webber and the other Plance were reported in "serious" condition at Resurrection Hospital there.

Both are former residents of Industry.

Services for the brother will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. at the Schwerha Funeral Home in Midland.

The Rev. B. F. Richter, pastor of the Assembly of God Church of Midland, will officiate and burial will be in Oak Grove Cemetery, Industry.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 tonight.

75 Hear Blair Speak On School Locations

About 75 attended a special meeting of the LaCroft Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday night at which Supt. Paul Blair discussed locations for a new school.

Thomas Scott, president, introduced Blair, who outlined locations for the proposed elementary school. A question-and-answer period followed.

Light refreshments were served by Mrs. Mary Smith, chairman.

Ohio Officials Commemorate Pike's Opening

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The "daddy" of all those recent ribbon-snippings for new Ohio superhighway segments took place just 10 years ago, and state officials paused to commemorate the occasional Tuesday.

Photographs of the Dec. 1, 1954 ceremonies — inauguration of traffic on the initial 22-mile segment of the Ohio Turnpike—graced the 181st meeting of the Turnpike commission, now a hugely going concern.

Millions of dollars in tolls, and millions in turnpike bond retirements, have accumulated in the ensuing decade for the 241-mile Pennsylvania-to - Indiana route across northern Ohio.

This year's revenue alone, already beyond $26.6 million, will surpass $28 million. And the commission approved a 1965 budget pegged on an estimated $28 million in revenue next year, admitting the income could go considerably higher but playing it conservative.

Three Men Charged

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Three men from the Washington, D.C., area have been charged with armed robery in connection with a holdup at a motel near here during which an elderly man died.

Party's Blamed For Barry Loss

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An Ohio political scientist blames the defeat of Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater on what he calls an amateurish organization and alienation of party regulars.

Dr. Arthur L. Peterson, director of the Institute of Practical Politics at Ohio Wesleyan University, analyzed the result of last month's election at a meeting of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic society, Tuesday night.

Peterson, an active worker in the GOP who has assisted the national committee, criticized what he called the amateurs "from top to bottom" brought in to help the Goldwater campaign, particularly Goldwater's hand-picked national GOP chairman, Dean Burch.

Takes Post At Lisbon

LISBON — Mrs. Jane Donbar of Columbiana began work Tuesday as a secretary in the county extension office, replacing Mrs. Martha Cope of Brookfield Ave., who resigned.

Mrs. Donbar previously worked 10 years in the extension office before resigning three years ago. In the interim, she was employed in Montana and also in the office of the Youngstown Kitchen Division at Salem.

New Beaver Court's Personnel Appointed

BEAVER — E. B. McNitt, former superintendent of New Brighton schools, was appointed today as administrator of the new Domestic Relations Divisions of the Beaver County Courts.

Named associate director was Mrs. Clinton Dalzell, while William Butler and Robert T. Barner were named domestic relations officers. Mrs. Sophia Siget will be in charge of collection and disbursement.

Mrs. Dalzell, Mrs. Siget and Butler have been associated with domestic relations work, while Barner is a former superintendent of Rochester schools.

Ohio Firm Loses Ship Contracts

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Maritime Administration has canceled a $6.9 million contract with the Marietta Manufacturing Co. for construction of two 1,600-ton ships for the Coast and Geodetic Survey.

The company was scheduled to build the ships at Point Pleasant, W. Va., on the Ohio River.

A telegram from Maritime Administrator Nicholas Johnson said the deadlines specified in the contract had not been met.

The original delivery date specified in the contract was August 1965, but a Maritime Administration spokesman said the company had not made enough progress to make it possible to meet the deadline. The spokesman said the company had been warned several times.

The spokesman said construction had not been started but the Marietta company had ordered some of the material.

The Point Pleasant shipyards were affected by a strike from Oct. 2, 1963, to Feb. 8, 1964. However, the Maritime Administration extended the contract twice, the last time to Oct. 28, 1965.

Registration of racing boats rose in 1964 from 4,594 to 4,747.

People In News

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — The South African government has refused an entry visa to American trumpeter Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong.

The South Africa Press Association reported today that the government gave no reason for the refusal. Presumably the visa was withheld because Armstrong is a Negro.

NEW YORK (AP) — Alan Jay Lerner, the lyricist for "My Fair Lady," "Gigi," and "Camelot," was cited for contempt of court Tuesday and faces a possible jail sentence unless he pays $16,500 in back alimony and counsel fees.

State Supreme Court Justice George M. Carney acted on a move by Lerner's estranged wife, Micheline, who lives in California with their son, Michel, 6.

LONDON (AP) — Former British War Minister John Profumo, 49, who resigned last year after admitting he lied to cover a liaison with call girl Christine Keeler, will be able to pocket $1,680,000 under an agreement announced today in the High Court in London.

His brother and two sisters get similar sums. In return they forfeit life interests in trusts of $11.2 million set up by their father, the late Baron Albert Profumo.

Laotian Army Retakes Positions, Kills 37

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The Laotian army recaptured Tuesday the positions lost Monday to the Pathet Lao in the Tha Thom sector and killed 37 Pathet Lao soldiers in the battle, Western military sources reported.

Tha Thom is a small town on the road from the Plaine des Jarres to Pak Sane, a Mekong River community below Vietiane.

Equal Chance Of Jobs Urged For All People

CLEVELAND (AP) — Undersecretary of Labor John F. Henning says equal opportunity for employment must be extended to all people. He noted that the unemployment rate among Negroes is more than double that of whites in speaking here Tuesday at the opening of the Apprenticeship Information Bureau.

Henning said that by 1970 the proportion of unskilled laborers in the nation's work force will be down, while the percentage of skilled workers will be up 24 per cent. Henning said the Apprentice Information Center — the second in Ohio — should help qualified youth of all races to find positions as apprentices. The center is operated by personnel from the Ohio State Employment Service.

Boost Milk Price

CLEVELAND (AP) — Most Cleveland dairies have raised the retail price of milk one cent a quart. The boost, effective Tuesday, was the result of an increase in the minimum wholesale price for December paid farmers. The price is $5 per 100 pounds, 35 to 40 cents more than in August. Dairies that have not raised their retail price are expected to do so in a few days.

Woman Shows Slides For Daw Junior PTA

Miss Hazel McShane of East Liverpool screened slides of a trip to South America at a meeting of the Wellsville Daw Junior High School Parent-Teacher Association Monday night.

The Rev. Arden Beck of the First Methodist Church conducted devotions. Arthur Geisse, president, conducted business.

A joint meeting with the MacDonald PTA will be held in January.

The PTA is selling dishcloths to raise funds. Refreshments were served.

Bringing Up A Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

Parents Expose Boys To Good Books

An Ohio mother writes of her three boys, 17, 13 and 3: "Our hearts were indeed warmed by your reply to the young family who invests in good books and enjoys them. We have three sons — 17, 13 and 3. Our income is modest, but we have a fine library. We have always read to the boys and have enjoyed some books as a whole family. You're so right — the actual enjoyment of the story as it is being read is only one bonus, the real one is the sharing and exchange of ideas.

Dr. Garry Myers

"Our two older boys have seen only Walt Disney and other good family movies; no comic books have ever crossed our threshold, as even the 'harmless' ones are less than excellent. Then TV is carefully selected with less parental influence as they mature. We're a praying family, so the criticism for these restrictions which has come from relatives has been easier to take.

—:—

"OUR ELDEST son is not a good student, and this was apparent from his first grade. Yet we refused to let him read horror comics just to improve his reading.

"It has been disappointing to see this eldest son do so poorly in school — but he is a good boy and very capable and reliable in the summer job and his tasks at home.

"Our second son won a scholarship to Hawken School, a fine boys' school. He's a brilliant boy with great potential, we are told.

"Our wee one is really why I'm writing you. He learned the alphabet quickly at 18 months and each of the states at two years. He has learned the sounds of letters and asks, 'What does this word say?' We have volunteered little but have simply answered his questions. Is this a good method to continue?

—:—

"WE HAVE read to him dozens and dozens of books. He knows most of the flowers in our yard and is fascinated with bugs, butterflies and birds. He carefully looks through each magazine as it arrives."

My reply in part: Surely you are dedicated parents. It's wonderful the way you have read to your boys and exposed them to good books. You can well be proud of those children of so many fine qualities.

Along with you I feel badly about the eldest boy's lag at school and in reading. I hope you parents don't exult over the school successes of the second boy and the precociousness of the youngest. Fine that you do play up now—school qualities and achievements in the eldest boy.

It should not be too late to help him again in reading, the key to his school progress. Encourage him to read from books he can read with success and enjoyment. He would greatly profit from reading to his youngest brother when he, naturally, would read from easy materials.

I HOPE you keep on reading to your youngest boy and go on telling him the words he wants to know. But you may be tempted to press him too much in formal school learning. He needs also to make things with his hands for fun and to play freely with other children of his age.

My bulletins, "Helping Child at Home in Early Steps of Reading" and "Home Helps in Reading, Spelling, Arithmetic and Handwriting," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

2 Townships Receive County Fund Awards

LISBON — Slag grants of $300 each were awarded to Butler and Franklin Township trustees by county commissioners at a meeting Monday.

In other business, Wellsville City was given $49.50 for 99 dogs destroyed during November.

The commissioners' next meeting will be Monday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. The board will not meet Thursday because Commissioners Galen Greenisen of Salem and Walter Hunston of East Palestine and Rex Reich of Salem, clerk, will be attending the state meeting of the County Commissioners Association in Columbus Wednesday through Friday.

Hookstown Couple's Anniversary Marked

Miss Jane Nickle entertained at a family party Saturday night, honoring the 35th wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Nickle of Hookstown.

Nineteen attended, with prizes in games being won by Mrs. Alex Mansfield and Mrs. Thomas Mansfield. Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Norman Neal.

Guests were from East Liverpool, Massillon, Beaver Falls and Hookstown.

Deaf Mute, 60, Sues In Loss Of 4 Fingers

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — A deaf mute, Joseph Kollar, 60, has brought suit for $150,000, claiming he can no longer use sign language as the result of having lost four fingers in an industrial accident.

The suit was filed against two companies connected with manufacture of a machine that broke while Kollar was using it.

OSU Will Honor City Man And 9 Other War Dead

A special taps ceremony was to be held this morning at Ohio State University in Columbus in memory of 10 OSU graduates or former students who gave their lives in the service of their country as members of the U. S. Armed Forces, including one from East Liverpool.

Those honored included Sgt. Jack Roush, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Roush, 946 Bank St.

An Air Force tail gunner, Sgt. Roush, 21, was killed in action over Germany in April 1945. He served with the 8th Air Force and was killed in a bomber piloted by Lt. William Wells of Newell, who was also a casualty. Only one crew member was able to parachute to safety.

Sgt. Roush was a graduate of East Liverpool High School and attended the College of Engineering at OSU.

Mr. and Mrs. Roush attended the ceremonies conducted by the university's Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps detachment at the flagpole in front of the administration building on the campus.

The highest scoring match between National Football League champions and an All-Star College team was in 1940, in which the Green Bay Packers beat the All-Stars 45-28.

November's Weather Allowed Winter 'Surprise'

The late start in winter weather was borne out by statistics on November's rainfall and temperature from Edwin Copeland, U. S. weather observer at Millport.

The temperature last month averaged 43.8 degrees, well above the normal 39.6 for November, Copeland said.

A 10 degree reading Nov. 22 was the lowest for the month and a 71 degree reading Nov. 15 the highest, he added.

The normal sunshine for November, determined by an average of his 74-year records, is 30 per cent.

Last month, the sunshine was a Florida-like 64 per cent. There were 16 clear days, seven partly cloudy and only seven cloudy.

Rainfall continued to be subnormal, however. Rain totaled 1.68 inches, compared to the normal 2.41 inches.

There was an inch of snow for the month.

Copeland said topsoil is in good condition for moisture, but above average rainfall is needed to restore the water table and start springs which are dry.

Fall grains are small, he said, but have a better start than last year.

The total number of U. S. homes owning television sets has increased by 1,300,000 during the past year, according to the American Research Bureau —this increase bringing the total U. S. television homes to 51,733,200 and the penetration percentage to 91 per cent.

State Rep. Rothel Will Offer Prayers

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Rep. Charles F. Rothel, a Methodist minister since 1917, apparently will offer the prayer that opens each day's floor session in the Ohio House for the rest of this special session.

The Republican legislator-clergyman, who serves a church seven miles west of Cadiz in Harrison County, would succeed the Rev. Calvin W. Didier, who said goodby and received standing applause from the House Monday.

Didier, chaplain since January 1963 and before that the first active minister in recent history to serve in Indiana's legislature, preaches his first sermon next Sunday as executive pastor of Detroit's huge Redford Presbyterian Church. He has been pastor of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church in Columbus.

When a recipe calls for "poaching" a food, cook it gently in hot liquid so it will hold its shape.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: Those plastic, squirt - top bottles make excellent containers for rubbing alcohol, or other liquids, needed for a patient . . .

Most tops can be closed easily and, since they are plastic there is no danger of breaking or spilling.

I use one of these bottles to hold diluted laundry bleach, and it is so easy to apply when I wish to bleach a small area.

READER.

-:-

Your idea is great. But be sure to LABEL them. Never pour anything from one bottle to another without labeling it in BOLD print.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: For those people whose storm windows freeze over with ice (and they are unable to see out) . . . how about using that portable hair dryer to thaw the ice?

We tried this today, and it took only a few minutes.

SUSAN PINNEY.

DEAR HELOISE: My 6-year-old son had to swallow large pills, which were not to be crushed, and it was very difficult for him.

I made some gelatine dessert, using a little less water than the recipe called for.

When the gelatin was set, I cut it into squares, and when it was time for him to take a pill, I pressed it into a cube of the gelatin. It was then so much easier for him to swallow the pill.

MRS. GEORGE LUCAS.

DEAR HELOISE: Children love to be talked to, and even though too young to understand all that is said, the voice attracts them, and usually keeps them quiet.

There are many items in the newspapers which are not only newsworthy, but interesting, entertaining and educational as well.

The person doing the reading can sit and relax, read aloud and convey love to the listeners, and also keep up with many interesting subjects at the same time.

Of course, there is always the possibility that some explanation will be necessary, but that, too, can be educational and fun.

A DAILY READER.

DEAR HELOISE: A little hint which saves fingernails and tempers . . .

Cover your foam rubber toss pillows with plastic before trying to put the zipper covers on them!

The plastic bags from the cleaners are grand for this. Just cut off the excess plastic near the zipper. The plastic makes it easier to slip the covers on and keeps the foam rubber clean.

MRS. A. FREAS.

-:-

True! How brilliant can a woman be? That's a marvelous idea.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When my daughters were babies, I found a way to keep them warm during cold weather.

I sewed two small blankets together on three sides, like a pillowcase, and I slipped the babies into this, then pinned the blanket with safety pins to their nightgowns, under the arms.

When the babies turned over, they were always covered.

MRS. EARL JONES.

DEAR HELOISE: When my little one is sick, and I can't get her to drink as much liquid as the doctor advises, I put juice or soda pop in one of my stemmed party glasses.

She feels so grown up that she drinks it all!

Double-Decker Salads Complete The Meal

Some salads are designed to complement meals — multi-colored to pep up eye appeal and tempting to spark up appetites.

Then too, some beauties are designed to make the meal . . . as are these individual Double Decker Salads. Taste - tempting salmon with colorful tomato aspic is a complementary combination —hearty fare for luncheon or for supper and ideal for family and guests.

Come serving time the salads are easy - to - assemble —place rounds of tangy tomato aspic on crisp slices of iceberg lettuce and mound with generous servings of salmon salad. As the finishing touch, top with smaller rounds of the aspic.

Begin the meal with steaming bowls of Party Pea Soup... canned green pea soup with a dollup of sour cream and a sprinkling of chopped watercress.

Double Decker Salads

Tomato Aspic:

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1¾ cups canned tomato juice
1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce
1 tablespoon canned lemon juice
1 teaspoon sugar
½ teaspoon seasoned salt
1 tablespoon grated onion

Salmon Salad

½ cup mayonnaise
1½ tablespoons vinegar
½ cup thinly sliced celery
¼ cup chopped sweet pickle
1 can (1 lb.) salmon
Onion salt
6 slices of iceberg lettuce

Tomato Aspic: Sprinkle gelatin over tomato juice in a saucepan to soften. Heat slowly until gelatin is dissolved, stirring. Add remaining ingredients. Pour into a 8"x12"x1" pan; chill until firm.

Salmon Salad: Mix mayonnaise, vinegar, celery and pickle. Add drained salmon broken in chunks; mix lightly. Season to taste with onion salt; chill. At serving time cut six 3-inch and six 1½-inch rounds of tomato aspic, using cooky cutters.

For each salad place a large round of aspic on a slice of lettuce. Put a mound of salmon salad on aspic and top with a small aspic round. Six servings.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: It appears to be the style, in at least some circles, to be consistently late to parties, church, sports events —everything.

In most instances it does not seem to matter an iota. Theater curtains are held, sermons delayed, the soup is kept warm until the slowpokes arrive on the scene, thus penalizing the considerate and the punctual.

Am I wrong to feel it is rude and egotistical to be late unless there is an extremely good reason? Kindly comment on this. Also, if you have a "cure" for the snails I'd like to hear it.—J. C. F.

Dear J. C. F.: It is egotistical and rude to arrive late unless an emergency caused the delay. The thoroughly disorganized and thoughtless (and neurotic) are beyond hope. But most folks WILL get there on time if courageous people refuse to cater to the tardy at the expense of the punctual.

No Nudenix

Dear Ann: I'm a girl in the ninth grade. Our physical education teacher is very hard to get along with. I used to think it was my fault but I've tried awfully hard to do everything just right and things are not better. I'm beginning to think it's partly her fault.

We girls are supposed to run around the football field about four times. Then we are expected to take a shower, be out in three minutes and line up in the nude so she can check us off.

Some of the girls do not like standing around in the nude and I'm one of them. It is especially embarrassing to the freshmen. We have talked to girls who go to other schools and they don't have to do this.

We don't know if we have the right to complain or who to complain to. Will you guide us, please?—EMBARRASSED.

Dear Embarrassed: I see no good reason why you girls can't line up and get checked out in your underwear.

Those of you who are uncomfortable about the arrangement (and I don't blame you) should ask your mothers to get together and talk to the gym teacher—or the principal.

Financial Manager

Dear Ann: After 14 years of marriage, three children, two homes and six cars my husband got the idea I didn't know how to handle money and decided to take over "and show me how it's done."

It is now six months later and here is where we stand:

Gas and electric bills: Two months overdue.

Grocery bill: No more credit —cash only.

Car payment: Thirty days late. Pay within 15 days or it's the bus for us.

Life insurance: Pay the last three premiums or we lose the policy.

Charity pledge: Unpaid.

All this seemed to hit us at once. When I asked what happened, he accused me of taking money out of his wallet during the night. He knew better, of course.

Now that things are all fouled up he wants me to handle the family budget again. Shall I? Or would it be best to let him sweat it out?—LOOKING BETTER ALL THE TIME.

Dear Looking Better: For heavens sake, Lady, this isn't HIS problem, it's yours, too.

Get back in there and get things squared away. Your husband should not be ashamed that you do a better job of handling money than he does. Most wives do. And I don't want to hear any beefs on this from my male readers. It's the beautiful truth, Boys.

Sheep Group To Plan For Annual Banquet

LISBON — The Tri - County sheep committee will convene Thursday night at 8 and discuss plans for the annual banquet and for the summer twilight meeting.

The committee is composed of members from Columbiana, Carroll and Mahoning Counties, according to Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture. John Raley of Rogers, chairman, will preside at the session in the Co - operative Extension Service offices.

Avoiding Votes At $37 Each, Board To Reassign Electors

The County Election Board expects to use a combined polling place for two adjoining St. Clair Township precincts at a special election Jan. 5 in the Beaver Local School District, avoiding a situation in which each ballot cast in one of the precincts would cost taxpayers about $37.

At a meeting Thursday afternoon at 3, the Election Board will act on the proposal, which calls for the voters in St. Clair's Glenmoor and West Precincts to use the same polling place for the special election only.

Under normal circumstances, both polling places are located in the Glenmoor fire station. The action will mean that about four voters in the Glenmoor Precinct who are residents of the Beaver Local district will cast their ballots in the West Precinct's polling place.

When both precincts are operating, both use the same huge room at the rear of the fire station.

The Glenmoor Precinct cast four votes on the Beaver Local issue at the Nov. 3 general election. Three favored the 5.4-mill levy that will be voted upon again in January and one was against.

Operation of the precinct for the special election would cost approximately $150, according to Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the board. The shift of the voters will save that expense, or about $37 per vote, he pointed out.

Revised Code Section 3503.01 permits such action at the discretion of the board, he explained.

The saving actually will be a benefit to the school district, which will foot the entire bill for the special election, except for the cost of the poll books.

At its meeting tomorrow, the Election Board also expects to award a contract for ballots and poll books for the special election. The Beaver Local board asked a new vote after a recount showed the levy was rejected by 31 votes at the November election.

Meanwhile, O'Hanlon asked county officials-elect to forward as soon as possible the fees for their commissions which they must have before qualifying to serve.

The fees are $5 for all officials-elect except County Judge James L. MacDonald, who is required to pay only $2.

The Election Board acts as agent for the candidates, forwarding the fees to Secretary of State Ted W. Brown. Gov. James A. Rhodes then signs the commissions and they are forwarded to Clerk of Courts Carl L. Stacey at Lisbon, where the officials-elect may pick them up.

Because of the time required for issuance of the commissions, the officials-elect should forward the fees "without delay," O'Hanlon said. The board will forward the fees to Brown next Tuesday, he explained.

The commission fees have been given to the board so far by Judge MacDonald, Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan, J. Warren Bettis, elected prosecutor, and Frank Wilson, named a county commissioner.

Seven of the successful candidates have filed the required sworn statements of campaign expenditures and the balance should be given to the board "without further delay," O'Hanlon added.

Myers Signs Pact With Detroit Lions

DETROIT (AP)—Tom Myers of Troy, Ohio—star quarterback for Northwestern—has signed a contract to play with the Detroit Lions of the National Football League in 1965.

Myers, the Lions' No. 4 draft choice, agreed to terms Tuesday. Terms of the contract were not made public, but Myers' father said it included a bonus.

OFF THE RECORD

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I keep a beret shapely after washing it?

A.—Put it over a large flat plate or over a pot cover, depending on the size of the beret. Remove when thoroughly dry.

Q.—How can I remove lipstick stains from white linens?

A.—By soaking the cloth in strong vinegar. If the stain is on colored material, use equal parts of vinegar and water.

Q.—Whenever I paint chairs or other furniture, which I have placed on newspapers to protect my floors, my finished paint job invariably sticks to the newspaper and creates a mess. How can I avoid this?

A.—Try inserting a square of aluminum foil under each leg of the furniture, between it and the newspaper, and your furniture will not stick to this.

Q.—How can I launder handkerchiefs to make them come out whiter and stay fresh longer?

A.—By adding a little borax to your laundry water. Borax gives the fabric just enough extra body to withstand soiling too quickly.

Q.—How can I remove vegetable stains from my fingers?

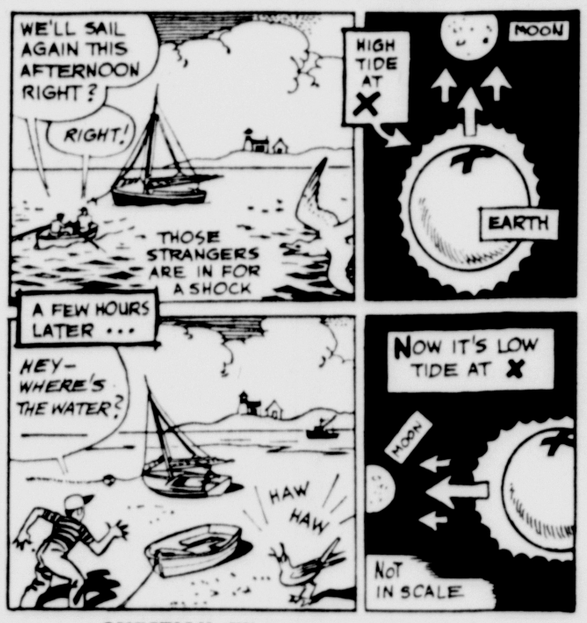

A.—By rubbing them with a slice of raw potato.

This 'n That

Mix olive oil, tarragon vinegar, salt, white pepper and paprika in amounts to suit your own taste for salad dressing. Use for a salad of crisp greens, orange slices and paper - thin red onion rings.

Heat red wine with a spice bag (a bay leave, whole cloves and a cinnamon stick) and pour over sugared slices of orange. Be sure to cut the peel away from the oranges so no white membrane remains.

A Junior Editors Quiz About TIDES

QUESTION: What causes ocean tides?

ANSWER: The men rowing back from a pleasant sail in the harbor of Provincetown, Mass., in the upper picture, come from the Great Lakes region. They are unacquainted with the rise and fall of ocean tides, which is very strong at Provincetown. So when they come back for another sail, the boat they rented is resting on the sand, for now it's low tide.

Tides are caused (right) mainly by the pull of the moon's gravitational force on the ocean (scalloped area surrounding the earth). It is high tide at X on top because the moon is pulling the ocean out toward it. It is also high tide on the opposite side because the moon also pulls the solid earth a little way toward it. In this picture, the two sides of the earth have low tides. But the earth spins around every 24 hours. When it's low tide at the place marked X (lower picture), the moon is pulling a high tide up on the place where it was low 6 hours before. The shape of the sea coast makes a great difference in how high the tide rise is. In places on the Bay of Fundy the sea gets bottled up so much that a tide up to fifty feet higher than the low mark can come boiling in.

FOR YOU TO DO: In what is called spring tide, there is more difference between high and low tide than usual; in neap tides, there is less. There are 26 spring and 26 neap tides in a year. Find out what causes them.

★ ★ ★

Marianne Amaral of Taunton, Mass., wins today's combined prize of Compton's Illustrated Science Dictionary plus $10 cash for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review and you may win the weekly prize of Compton's Pictured Encyclopedia.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Come To A Decision About Sweets

"When I see others indulging in ice cream and goodies, I want them, too. If a dessert tempts me, I think to myself, 'One more won't make much difference.' I'm trying to diet and I have lost six pounds. But the pointer on the scales is still close to 200. How can I strengthen my will power?"

Ida Jean Kain

Make an advance decision on what you really want to do about high calorie sweets, a commitment to yourself. The object of this prior decision is to have your course of action set in advance and thus avoid the need for making a choice each time. Understand that when you leave the question of desserts and sweets sort of vague in your mind, you are, without reasoning it through, subtly giving yourself a way out.

—:—

THE MATURE attitude is to be willing to make important decisions ahead of time. It is helpful to think about this when you are not tempted. Resolve to forego such fatteners, and at the same time picture yourself saying, "No, thank you." See yourself quite willing to do this, happy about your wise decision.

Such strategy is amazingly effective. By giving forethought to how you intend to act, you build a connection between the new resolve and the act of putting it into practice. Recognize that at the beginning you will need to re-make your mental resolve, perhaps many times. It is much easier to do so when you focus on your goal. With your goal uppermost in mind, there will be no feeling of deprivation when you forego such food.

On the physical side, a few weeks of leaving out sweets will perceptibly lessen the craving. It is true that you will miss them at first, for nature takes a little time to adjust to change. The mechanism the body has set up for handling the accustomed inflow of carbohydrate is still in force. By avoiding sweets, you stop the powerful stimulus which is creating the craving.

IT IS much easier to resist such tempters when you do not feel pangs of hunger. The wise plan is to eat well - balanced, satisfying low-calorie meals that control hunger. Be sure to include a complete protein food at each meal.

In brief, to break the sweet habit, determine your course of action, then you will not be prey to impulse. When you can look upon overindulgence in such foods as going counter to what you want to achieve, you honestly won't be tempted. Frankly, I do not believe there is any other effective way to slim down happily. It has to be an inner decision made in advance of the momentary temptation.

Upon reaching your ideal weight, you can then enjoy an occasional dessert. The difference will be that you will not feel compelled to eat sweets. You're set free.

Remarks In Dept. Store

Santa Gets Tired, Too

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks a department store Santa Claus gets tired of hearing:

"Last year I told you I wanted a bike and ya brought me a pair of roller skates, ya bum. This year I want ya to get it straight. Bring me a bike."

"Let me down! Let me down! I want my mama!"

"We like you to show enthusiasm, Roscoe, but don't you think you're overdoing it a bit? Just kiss the children — and let the mothers alone."

"Hey, fellow, I have to play Santa Claus for my kids on Christmas Eve. How about letting me in on a few secrets of the trade?"

"Of course, they ain't real whiskers. When he takes you up on his lap, give them a big pull —and I betcha they'll come right off in your hands."

"No, Johnny. You musn't punch Santa in the stomach. He's a nice man."

"Would you mind keeping an eye on my little boy while I go over to the lingerie department, Santa? I won't be gone more than a few moments."

"Whatever you bring me, don't bring my little brother anything at all. He's been bad —and he pulled my hair, too."

"Your 'Ho, ho, ho' sounds a little hollow this morning, Roscoe. I suggest you'd better practice up on it during your lunch hour."

"I know my little girl didn't mean to get her lollipop stuck in your whiskers, Santa. If we can just find a pair of scissors, I think I can cut it out."

"The kid next door told me that Santa Claus is really your father, but you sure don't look much like my old man to me."

"When he bends down to pick up the next little girl, Jimmy, you sneak up behind him and put this tack in his chair. I double-dog dare you."

"You ought to have had better sense than to eat a garlic bread sandwich, Roscoe. I'm afraid I'll have to dock you half a day's pay. The kids won't come within a mile of you now."

"How are you fixed for blades fatso?"

$3,025 Reported As Expense For Bettis Campaign

Three committees spent a total of $3,025 on the successful campaign in which Atty. J. Warren Bettis of Salineville, Republican, won election as prosecuting attorney in the general election Nov. 3, according to sworn statements filed with the County Election Board.

An East Liverpool committee headed by T. Gerald Ryan reported expenses at $2,528. A Salem committee with Duane Yeagley as chairman reported it spent $24. The Salineville Bettis - for - Prosecutor Committee listed expenses of $473. Harry Bryson was chairman of the Salineville group.

Bettis also filed an individual report in which he said he spent no funds personally. He will succeed G. William Brokaw of East Liverpool, Republican, who did not seek a new term.

Dec. 18 at 4 p. m. is the deadline for the expense reports. They are required of all candidates, whether or not they were successful, and from committees that supported or opposed any candidate or issue.

Teachers Plan Christmas Fete

A Christmas program will highlight the meeting of the East Liverpool Teachers Association Thursday at 8:30 p. m. in the all-purpose room at Westgate School.

Games, carol singing and selections by the Melodettes from East Liverpool High School will be featured.

Approximately 100 teachers and guests will attend. Mrs. Hazel Neiser is in charge of the program.

Brief business will be held with Austen B. Moore, president, in charge.

554 Traffic Deaths Set Holiday Record

CHICAGO (AP) — The nation's 554 traffic deaths during the extended Thanksgiving weekend was a record for the 102-hour holiday period.

The previous high since The Associated Press started counting traffic fatalities for the four-day holiday in 1958 was 543 last year.

ARROW'S NEW STRETCH SHIRT
OF DACRON - COTTON - LYCRA
8.95

Here's an Arrow that scores with men who want the ultimate in a dress shirt . . . complete comfort combined with brazen good-looks. Imagine a dress shirt that stretches . . . stretches across back and shoulder, under the arms, at the elbows and especially in the collar . . . stretches for comfort then springs right back into shape. The secret is in Decton . . . Arrow's special blend of Dacron polyester, cotton and Lyrca spandex . . . a fabric that gives-in to you, but never gives-out . . bends as you bend, but wears and wears unbelievably. Every man should have at least one . . the lucky man several. In white only with convertible cuff. 14½ to 17 collar; 32 to 34-inch sleeves.
